WHEREAS, Mayor Smith called for public comment.

THEREUPON, Rev. Hogan stated that he represented a group of pastors of churches in Petal concerned about the repeal of the Sunday sales ordinance. Rev. Hogan stated that he felt the citizens did not have an opportunity to know the vote of the opinion poll before the aldermen voted to repeal the ordinance. Rev. Hogan stated that due to the closeness of the vote, the wisdom of the repeal is questioned. Rev. Hogan requested for the group a statement from aldermen concerning their actions on the ordinance.

THEREUPON, Mayor Smith stated that the basis the aldermen's decision was based on the majority vote of the people at the opinion poll.

WHEREAS, James Manning addressed the board concerning the annexation by the City of Petal and surrounding areas.

THEREUPON, Mr. Tyner stated that this question has been turned over to the Planning Commission for a feasibility study. This study will consist of input by the residents of the proposed areas and the report will be a public report.

WHEREAS, Wayne Cedatol addressed the Board concerning the proposed water rates for apartments and trailers. Mr. Cedatol stated that the apartment and trailers rate will increase 400% as compared to a residential rate increase of 30%. This opinion was expressed by Robert Sullivan, William H. Jones, Don Graham and Bill McSwain.

THEREUPON, Alderman Draughn stated that these rates will be reviewed with the city engineers before a new rate is set.

WHEREAS, Joe Barron presented the proration for the month of October to the board.
