RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, the competition for new jobs, expansions, capital investment, tourism revenues, entrepreneur startups and small business development has become increasingly intense; and

WHEREAS, success in drawing new capital dollars as well as expanded employment depends on the timely delivery of information exposing unique opportunities, pursuing innovative ideas and worthy projects on behalf of the community to support regional educational, retail, medical and cultural advancement and provide the ability of the area to grow and support development of highways, airports, and waterways; and

WHEREAS, the Hattiesburg/Petal and Forrest County area has a rich tradition of a strong-willed, spirited and able workforce and our communities desire is to have the best and most effective economic development effort; and

WHEREAS, the most successful organizations have traditionally been those which have achieved a committed partnership between the public and private sectors of the community; and

WHEREAS, it is vital to the communities effort that the citizens involved in business and commerce be the driving force in creating the policies and programs pursued to enhance the total quality of life in the community; and

WHEREAS, the ability of communities across the nation to be successful in these endeavors has demonstrated that the concept of pooled manpower and resources allows for streamlining, and reducing duplication and beauracy to provide the most effective operation in support of development; and

WHEREAS, it has been recognized by many sectors of the community that the best way to achieve and accomplish superior development of our area is to consolidate the efforts performed by all agencies involved, bringing under one authority the various activities which must be performed to accomplish economic and community development; and

WHEREAS, this partnership provides the most efficient financial, managerial, and manpower commitment to get the job done in today's competitive environment; and

WHEREAS, this consolidation will create a superior and stronger agency to accomplish the goals of development within the community;

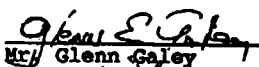

Therefore, be it resolved that the Hattiesburg Area Chamber of Commerce, the Hattiesburg Area Convention and Visitors Bureau, the Forrest County Industrial Park Commission, the Forrest County Development Foundation, the Hattiesburg Area Education Foundation, the Hattiesburg Conference Center Commission, the City of Petal, the City of Hattiesburg and Forrest County propose to create an organization that has the capability to deliver services in a united, coordinated focused and streamlined manner;

AND, THEREFORE, be it further resolved that these bodies will seek legislation in the State of Mississippi to create the Area Development Partnership that will be the agency for development in our area and serve as an example of coordination and execution of responsibilities in our state and nation.

Sincerely,

Mr. William R. Ray
