(CITY/TOWN)

PROCLAMATION

BY THE MAYOR

WHEREAS, our President has proclaimed the week beginning October 23, 1994 as National Consumers Week; and

WHEREAS, the Attorney General's Office of Consumer Protection in conjunction with National Consumers Week has planned several educational activities; and

WHEREAS, the 1994 theme "know your consumer rights" offers all organizations, government agencies, businesses, trade associations, educational institutions, and consumer groups an opportunity to highlight activities and programs to educate and protect consumers from fraud; and

WHEREAS, consumers are faced with many challenges and opportunities in today's complex marketplace; and

WHEREAS, consumers must have certain basic skills and a knowledge of what to do and where to go should a problem arise; and

WHEREAS, educators, parents, business and consumer leaders, the media, and public officials share the responsibility and challenge of ensuring that consumers gain such knowledge and skills; and

WHEREAS, marketplace fraud is estimated to cost U. S. consumers at least $40 billion each year, despite major efforts by law enforcement agencies to stop it;

NOW, THEREFORE, I as Mayor of CITY OF PETAL, State of Mississippi, do hereby proclaim October 23-29 as

and do hereby urge all citizens to participate in this worthy observance.
