EXHIBIT "D"

Sept. 15, 1998

To: Board of Aldermen

From: Jack Gay, Mayor

Subject: Sammy Graham, employee in Water/Sewer Dept.

On Saturday, Aug. 29th, Sammy Graham was involved in a serious accident, wrecking his truck and putting him into the hospital for several days. He came back to work on Thursday, Sept. 10th, and had to go back to the doctor today, complaining of stiffness in his neck. Doc Weaver recommended therapy for one week starting tomorrow which means we cannot work during that time.

The dilemma is, Sammy came to work with the City on 3/24/98 which according to policy, he cannot take any paid sick days until Thursday week, Sept. 24. Sammy will have lost some 12 days without pay. He has two small children and his wife which recently lost her job because the business closed, is keeping two children for their only other source of income.

I am recommending that we waive the sick leave policy giving Sammy his paid sick days starting today instead of Thursday, Sept. 24.

Thanks for your consideration.

From: Jack Gay, Mayor

Subject: Keith Braddock

Keith Braddock came to work with the City 9/03/96 and left on 9/31/97. He was re-employed on 3/31/98.

According to our policy, Keith will be eligible for a one week vacation beginning in 1999. He will have worked some 22 months without a vacation and I am recommending a waiver so he will be able to take two weeks annual leave.

Thanks for your consideration.
