To: Mayor and Board of Alderman,

Rodney Jarrell has served the City of Petal's law enforcement with excellent service and dedication for over 19 years. Rising to the rank of Police Chief in March of 1998, Chief Jarrell continues to make great strides on behalf of the community and has earned the respect of the people of Petal, as well as his peers. His outstanding record speaks for itself.

During Chief Jarrell's appointment as Police Chief, he has established the senior watch program. He has promoted strong community relations. Petal's crime rate is at a all time low. In fact with the establishment of the senior watch program, Chief Jarrell has not only gained the love and respect of the seniors, but the entire community of Petal. Chief Jarrell has bridged the gap with teenagers and what they perceive of police. He has accomplished this by demonstrating that there can be both trust and admiration between law enforcement and the younger generation.

Chief Jarrell has substantial training and has received multiple awards and letters of commendations such as:

- (1) The Chamber of Commerce Citizens Choice Award in 1995.
- (2) The Petal Rotary Clubs' Public Servant Award in 1995.
- (3) Distinguished Service for Outstanding Law Enforcement in 1988 and 1999.
- (4) The Petal; Optimist Club's Distinguished Service Award in 1998.

And last year, he was awarded the International "Who's Who" award for Public Servent.

Mayor, you nor anyone on this board has yet to give a viable reason to remove Rodney Jarrell from his position as Chief of Police of our city. In fact he is exactly what Petal needs as our Chief of Police. Numerous citizens feel that he is the best Chief in Petal's history.

I fully support Rodney Jarrell as Chief and believe that a large segment of the population shares this opinion as well. Alderman, I ask you to not only examine the facts, but your heart as well. Each of us has been elected to represent the people of Petal. We are here because we believe that this is not just a job, but a privilege , and we take this privilege seriously.

So, I am asking you to support Chief Rodney Jarrell and let's put this matter behind us and be about the business of doing good for the people of our city. Thank you and may God continue to bless the people of Petal.

Thank You,

Bill Travis
