(1) Sexually oriented businesses, as a category of commercial uses, are associated with a wide variety of adverse secondary effects including, but not limited to, personal and property crimes, human trafficking, prostitution, potential spread of disease, lewdness, public indecency, obscenity, illicit drug use and drug trafficking, negative impacts on surrounding properties, urban blight, litter, and sexual assault and exploitation. Alcohol consumption impairs judgment and lowers inhibitions, thereby increasing the risk of adverse secondary effects.

(2) Sexually oriented businesses should be separated from sensitive land uses to minimize the impact of their secondary effects upon such uses, and should be separated from other sexually oriented businesses, to minimize the secondary effects associated with such uses and to prevent an unnecessary concentration of sexually oriented businesses in one area.

(3) Each of the foregoing negative secondary effects constitutes a harm which the County has a substantial government interest in preventing and/or abating. The County’s interest in regulating sexually oriented businesses extends to preventing future secondary effects of either current or future sexually oriented businesses that may locate in the County. The County finds that the cases and documentation relied on in this division are reasonably believed to be relevant to said secondary effects.

The County hereby adopts and incorporates herein its stated findings and legislative record related to the adverse secondary effects of sexually oriented businesses, including the judicial opinions and reports related to such secondary effects.

Sec. 78-329. - Hearing; license denial, suspension, revocation; appeal.

The hearing shall take no longer than one (1) day, unless extended at the request of the petitioner to meet the requirements of due process and proper administration of justice. The Hearing Officer shall affirm the Director's licensing decision if any substantial evidence in the record at the hearing supports any of the grounds set forth in the written notice of intent to deny, suspend, or revoke. The Hearing Office shall issue a final written decision, including specific reasons for the decision pursuant to this division, to the petitioner within five (5) days after the hearing.

(d) If the decision is to deny, suspend, or revoke the license, the decision shall advise the petitioner of the right to appeal such decision to a court of competent jurisdiction, and the decision shall not become effective until the tenth (10th) day after it is rendered. If the Hearing Officer's decision finds that there is no substantial evidence to support the Director's licensing decision, the Hearing Officer shall, contemporaneously with the issuance of the decision, order the Director to immediately withdraw the intent to deny, suspend, or revoke the license and to notify the petitioner in writing by certified mail of such action. If the petitioner is not yet licensed, the Director shall contemporaneously therewith issue the license to the applicant.

(e) If any court action challenging a licensing decision is initiated, the County shall consent to expedited briefing and/or disposition of the action, shall comply with any expedited schedule set by the court, and shall facilitate prompt judicial review of the proceedings. The Provisional License shall allow the petitioner to continue operation of the sexually oriented business or to continue employment as a sexually oriented business employee and will expire upon the court's entry of a judgment on the petitioner's appeal or other action to restrain or otherwise enjoin the County's enforcement. While a Provisional License is in effect, the provisional licensee shall comply with the regulations set forth in Sections 78-325, 78-331, 78-332, 78-333, and 78-336, and any violations thereof shall be subject to the provisions of Section 78-334.

Sec. 78-337. - Scienter required to prove violation or business licensee liability.

This division does not impose strict liability. Unless a culpable mental state is otherwise specified herein, a showing of a reckless mental state is necessary to establish a violation of a provision of this division. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, for the purposes of this division, an act by an employee that constitutes grounds for suspension or revocation of that employee's license shall be imputed to the sexually oriented business licensee for purposes of finding a violation of this division, or for purposes of license denial, suspension, or revocation, only if an officer, director, or general partner, or a person who managed, supervised, or controlled the operation of the business premises, knowingly or recklessly allowed such act to occur on the premises. It shall be a defense to liability that the person to whom liability is imputed was powerless to prevent the act.

Sec. 78-338. - Location of sexually oriented businesses.

(a) It shall be unlawful to establish, operate, or cause to be operated a sexually oriented business in unincorporated Cobb County that is:

Where a use identified in subsection (a) is located in a multi-tenant development, the distance shall be measured to the closest part of the tenant space occupied by that use rather than the property line of the entire development, so as to maximize the number of locations available to sexually oriented businesses.

(c) Notwithstanding any provision in the Official Code of Cobb County, Georgia to the contrary, a sexually oriented business in a location that satisfies the standards in this section shall not be deemed noncompliant with this section by virtue of the subsequent establishment or expansion of a land use or zoning district identified in subsection (a).

(2) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Official Code of Cobb County, Georgia, a lawful nonconforming sexually oriented business may continue to operate in its nonconforming location until December 31, 2021, in order to make a reasonable recoupment of its investment in said location that was made before the adoption of this division. On or before January 1, 2022, the sexually oriented business shall conform to the location standards for sexually oriented businesses in the Official Code of Cobb County, Georgia.

An application for an initial extension based upon financial hardship shall be made by October 31, 2021. If a hardship extension is granted, subsequent applications for hardship extensions shall be made at least 60 days before the conclusion of the business's then-current extension period.

(4) Procedure. An application for a hardship extension shall be filed in writing with the Director, shall include documentation showing that the establishment is a lawful nonconforming sexually oriented business, shall specify the length of extension requested, and shall include evidence of purchase and improvement costs, income earned and lost, depreciation, and costs of relocation. The application shall include an electronic copy of the business's accounting or bookkeeping records, including the computer file(s) maintained in QuickBooks or any similar accounting or bookkeeping software. Within 20 days after receiving the application, the Director shall schedule a public hearing on the application before the Hearing Officer, which public hearing shall be conducted within 45 days after the Director's receipt of the application. Notice of the time and place of such public hearing shall be published at least ten days before the hearing on the County's website or in a newspaper of general circulation published within the County, and shall identify the particular business and location for which the hardship extension is requested.

(5) The Hearing Officer shall issue a written decision within ten days after the public hearing on the application for a hardship extension. The hardship extension shall be limited to a period of up to one year, as proven necessary by the applicant. The hardship extension shall be granted only upon a showing that the applicant is a lawful nonconforming sexually oriented business and is unable to recoup its investments, made prior to the effective date of this division, in its current location unless the hardship extension is granted.

Should any procedural aspect of this division be invalidated, such invalidation shall not affect the enforceability of the substantive aspects of this division.

Sec. 78-340. - Conflicting code provisions repealed.

Any provisions in this Code specifically in conflict with any provision in this division is hereby deemed inoperative and repealed.
