WHEREAS, Article VIII of the State Constitution and Chapter 125 of the Florida Statutes provides that counties, as political subdivisions of the State, have the governmental and proprietary powers to enable them to conduct government, perform services, and may exercise any such powers for public purposes, except when expressly prohibited by law; and

WHEREAS, pursuant thereto, on November 10, 2009, the Board of County Commissioners adopted Ordinance No. 2009-59, which adopted by reference the Florida Building Code, 2007 edition, to be enforced by Collier County in the unincorporated portions of the County as well as local amendments to the administrative procedures of the Florida Building Code as authorized by Section 553.73(4)(a), Florida Statutes; and

WHEREAS, Section 553.73(6), Florida Statutes, provides that any amendment to the Florida Building Code adopted by a local government pursuant to this paragraph shall be effective only until adoption by the Florida Building Commission of a new edition of the Florida Building Code every third year; and

WHEREAS, since adoption of Ordinance No. 2009-59, the Florida Building Commission has adopted Florida Building Code, 2010 Edition; and

WHEREAS; on April 23, 2009, the Collier County Review and Permitting Department petitioned the State of Florida Building Commission inquiring whether replacement of a gas or electric water heater requires a building permit under the requirements of the Florida Building Code; and

WHEREAS, the State of Florida Building Commission issued a Declaratory Statement dated September 9, 2009, stating in part, "Therefore, based on the foregoing, and in the absence of an exemption applicable with the jurisdiction pursuant to Section 553.80(3), Florida Statutes (2007), the Code requires a permit for the replacement of a gas or electric water heater"; and

WHEREAS, the Board of County Commissioners desires to repeal Ordinance No. 2009-59 in its entirety and formally adopt, by reference, the Florida Building Code, 2010 Edition; and

WHEREAS, pursuant to Section 553.80(3), Florida Statutes, the Board of County Commissioners desires to add certain exemptions to Section 105.2 of the 2010 Florida Building Code (Work Exempt from Permit) relating to addition, alteration, or repairs performed by a property owner on his or her own property.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED BY THE BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS OF COLLIER COUNTY, FLORIDA, that:

SECTION ONE: ADOPTION OF AND ADDITIONS TO THE FLORIDA BUILDING CODE.

(a) Adoption. There is hereby adopted by reference, the Florida Building Code, 2010 Edition, and any amendments thereto, to be enforced by Collier County in the unincorporated portions of the County.

(b) Additions. The following exemptions are added to Section 105.2 of the Florida Building Code:

105.2.4. Exemptions for minor repairs residential. The following permit exemptions have been established for Collier County based on Section 102.2.5 (3) of the Florida Building Code and Section 553.80(3)(c), Florida Statutes.

Permit exemption is for owners of single family detached residences performing work on single family properties. All work performed shall comply with the standards of the Florida Building Code Residential.

8. Door replacement including swinging, sliding, pivoting, and rolling which does not otherwise create a new opening, enlarge or reduce an existing opening, or require the removal of any exterior or interior finish material serving a single family residence or other miscellaneous utility building constructed on a residential zoned lot. This exemption shall not allow nor relieve the building owner, unit owner, installer or contractor from complying with wind load and opening protection requirements of the Florida Building Code.
9. Movable cases, counters, and partitions not over 10 feet in height.
10. Cabinetry, counter tops, painting, papering, tiling, carpeting, and other similar finish work. This exemption is not allowed nor applicable when the work or alteration affects the structural integrity of a load bearing wall, or the fire resistant material of a fire rated horizontal or vertical separation. Projects located within a designated flood zone are required to comply with the substantial improvement requirements and submit a cost breakdown for any work which may be exempted from permits.
11. Swings and other playground equipment accessory. This exemption shall not allow nor permit the encroachment of setbacks or the erection of any unsafe, structurally unsound, or dilapidated structure. In the event the structure violates setbacks or is considered unsafe, structurally unsound, or dilapidated the building official may require a permit.

Note: All work shall comply with all applicable laws, ordinances, building codes and zoning regulations. To assure your safety and to assure proper construction and/or installation, those homeowners who are not familiar with the provisions and requirements of the Florida Building Code are encouraged to visit the website www2.iccsafe.org/states/florida_codes/ to review code requirements prior to doing any work or repairs or they can contact the county building department if they have any questions. Homeowners lacking the technical background and familiarity with the code requirements are encouraged to have the work done by a licensed professional or in the alternative apply for a permit where they will receive a technical review of the proposed work and where they will receive all required onsite technical inspections performed by a state licensed professional building inspector.

SECTION TWO: INCORPORATION OF UPDATED WIND ZONE MAPS.

The Wind Zone Maps appended hereto, consisting of Category 1, Category 2, and Category 3 and 4, are hereby adopted.

SECTION THREE: REPEAL

Ordinance No. 2009-59 is hereby repealed in its entirety.

SECTION FOUR. CONFLICT AND SEVERABILITY.

In the event this Ordinance conflicts with any other ordinance of Collier County or other applicable law, the more restrictive shall apply. If any phrase or portion of the Ordinance is held invalid or unconstitutional by any court of competent jurisdiction, such portion shall be deemed a separate, distinct and independent provision and such holding shall not affect the validity of the remaining portion.

SECTION FIVE: INCLUSION IN THE CODE OF LAWS AND ORDINANCES.

The provisions of this Ordinance shall become and be made a part of the Code of Laws and Ordinances of Collier County, Florida. The sections of the Ordinances may be renumbered or relettered to accomplish such, and the word "ordinance" may be changed to "section," "article," or any other appropriate word.

SECTION SIX: PENALTIES FOR VIOLATION.

If any person, firm, corporation, or other legal entity whether public or private, shall fail or refuse to obey or comply with, or violates, any of the provisions of the Ordinance, such person, firm, corporation, or other legal entity whether public or private, upon conviction of such offence, shall be punished by a fine not to exceed Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) or by imprisonment not to exceed sixty (60) days in the County jail, or both, in the discretion of the court. Each day of continued violation or noncompliance shall be considered as a separate offense. In addition, any person, firm, corporation, or other legal entity whether public or private, convicted under the provisions of this section shall pay all costs and expenses involved in the case. In addition, the provisions of this Ordinance may be enforced by any means appropriate under Section 125.69, Florida Statutes, or Chapter 162, Florida Statutes, or as set forth in the Code of Laws and Ordinances of Collier County, Florida, and the Collier County Land Development Code.

SECTION SEVEN: EFFECTIVE DATE.

This Ordinance shall be effective upon filing with the Department of State.
