Sec. 38-38. - Fixed and established boundaries.

The boundaries of the election districts, precincts, and the polling places are fixed and established as shown on Exhibits A and B (section 38-34).

Sec. 38-39. - Changes in districts or polling places.

No change as provided for in Code of Virginia, §§ 24.2-307 or 24.2-310 shall be made within 60 days next preceding any general election nor until notice has been published in a newspaper having general circulation in such election district or precinct once a week for two successive weeks. Notice of such change shall be mailed to all registered voters whose election district or precinct has changed, at least 15 days prior to the next general, special or primary election.

Sec. 38-40. - Public hearings, meetings and conferences.

The county staff and county attorney have taken all steps necessary, as provided in the Code of Virginia §24.2-129, Subsections B and C, to assure that all interested parties, groups of parties and their representatives, including all minorities, have been given a full opportunity to participate in the consideration of this decennial reapportionment plan, at public hearings and at meetings and conferences with county staff, by which passage of the article, the board so finds.

Sec. 38-41. - Authority.

The county staff and county attorney are hereby granted the full authority to take those steps necessary to assure that the redistricting is fully effective for the 2022 primary and general elections.

Sec. 38-42. - Severability.

Should any section or provision of this article be decided to be invalid or unconstitutional, such decision shall not affect the validity or constitutionality of any other section and provision of this article.

Sec. 38-43. - Expiration of term; election of successors.

This article shall be in full force and effect upon its adoption and enactment by the board of supervisors as provided by Code of Virginia, § 24.2-311. However, the members of the board of supervisors shall continue representing the old election districts until expiration of their term of office. The election of their successors shall be held at the general election next preceding the expiration of the term of office of the supervisors currently in office.

Sec. 38-44. - Reestablished districts.

Candidates for the office of the board of supervisors of the county who stand for election at the next general election, after the effective date of this Ordinance, shall offer for election from the election districts established by this article.

Sec. 38-45. - Filing of certified copies.

This article, including a description of the boundaries of election districts (Exhibit A) and precincts (Exhibit B) and a map showing the boundaries of the election districts, precincts, and polling places—2022 Redistricting Plan, Lunenburg County (Exhibit C), shall be recorded with the official minutes of this board, and a certified copy of this article and exhibits shall be sent to the Electoral Board of Lunenburg County, Virginia, Secretary of the Commonwealth, the State Board of Elections, and to the Division of Legislative Services, as required by Code of Virginia, § 24.2-304.3.

Sec. 38-46. - Expenditures.

All actions of the county staff and county attorney in carrying out the intent of this article are hereby approved, including the expenditures necessitated thereby.

Sec. 38-47. - Publication of notice to adopt.

Notice was properly given, by publication as required by the Code of Virginia, that at a meeting of the board of supervisors, to be held in the Lunenburg County Courts Building located at 11413 Courthouse Road, in Lunenburg, commencing at 6:00 p.m. on March 10, 2022, this article was to be proposed for passage, which notice was published once a week, for two successive weeks, in the Kenbridge/Victoria Dispatch, a newspaper having general circulation in the County of Lunenburg, Virginia.

Sec. 38-48. - Availability of article provisions to general public.

A copy of the ordinance from which this article is derived, including all exhibits attached hereto, was made available for public inspection in the office of the county administrator, located in Lunenburg County Administration Building, 11413 Courthouse Road, Lunenburg, and will continue to be available to all interested persons after the adoption hereof.

Sec. 38-49. - Effective date.

This article shall be adopted March 10, 2022 and become effective April 10, 2022, effective for elections held on or after April 10, 2022.
