The court shall impose conditions of probation that include: (1) not driving a motor vehicle within this state without a valid license to drive and proof of financial responsibility for the future; (2) not driving a motor vehicle within this state while having an alcohol concentration of 0.08 or more within two (2) hours after driving; and (3) not refusing to submit to a test of his or her breath or blood to determine alcohol concentration upon request of a law enforcement officer who has probable cause to believe the person was driving or was in actual physical control of a motor vehicle within this state while under the influence of intoxicating liquor. For each incident involving a violation of a mandatory condition of probation imposed under this subsection, the court shall suspend the person's license, permit or privilege to drive for thirty (30) days or, if the person's license, permit or privilege to drive already is suspended, revoked or denied at the time the finding of probation violation is made, then the suspension, revocation or denial then in effect shall be extended by thirty (30) days. Section 13. Subsection L of Section 11.56.025 of the Seattle Municipal Code is amended as follows:

11.56.025 Penalty for persons under the influence of intoxicating liquor or any drug.

* * *

L. The court shall require any person convicted of an alcohol-related violation of Subsection 11.56.020A or B to apply for an ignition interlock driver's license from the Washington Department of Licensing and to have a functioning ignition interlock device installed on all motor vehicles operated by the person. The installation of an ignition interlock device is not necessary on vehicles owned, leased or rented by a person's employer and on those vehicles whose care and/or maintenance is the temporary responsibility of the employer and driven at the direction of a person's employer as a requirement of employment during working hours. An ignition interlock device imposed under this section shall be calibrated to prevent a motor vehicle from being started when the breath sample provided has an alcohol concentration of 0.025 or more. The court may waive the requirement that a person apply for an ignition interlock driver's license if the court makes a specific finding in writing that the person lives out-of-state and the devices are not reasonably available in the person's local area, that the person does not operate a vehicle, or that the person is not eligible to receive an ignition interlock driver's license under RCW 46.20.385 because the person is not a resident of Washington, is a habitual traffic offender, has already applied for or is already in possession of an ignition interlock driver's license, has never had a driver's license, has been certified under RCW Chapter 74.20A as noncompliant with a child support order or is subject to any other condition or circumstance that makes the person ineligible to obtain an ignition interlock driver's license. If a court finds that a person is not eligible to receive an ignition interlock driver's license under this section, the court is not required to make any further subsequent inquiry or determination as to the person's eligibility. If the court orders that a person refrain from consuming any alcohol and requires the person to apply for an ignition interlock driver's license and the person states that he or she does not operate a motor vehicle or the person is ineligible to obtain an ignition interlock driver's license, the court shall order the person to submit to alcohol monitoring through an alcohol detection breathalyzer device, transdermal sensor device, or other technology designed to detect alcohol in a person's system. Alcohol monitoring ordered under this subsection must be for the period of the mandatory license suspension or revocation. The person shall pay for the cost of the monitoring. The period of time for which ignition interlock use or alcohol monitoring is required will be as follows: (i) For a person who has not previously been restricted under this subsection, a period of one (1) year; (ii) For a person who has previously been restricted under subsection L(i), a period of five (5) years; (iii) For a person who has previously been restricted under subsection L(ii), a period of ten (10) years.
