Sec. 6-2. Supervision and Enforcement.

The mayor shall appoint an animal control officer or such other officials as the mayor deems necessary who shall have vested powers to enforce this chapter.

ARTICLE II. SHELTERS

DIVISION 1. GENERALLY

Sec. 6-25. Humane treatment.

Every kennel and pet shop licensee shall humanely treat all animals in his possession or custody, or in accordance with the rules and regulations which may be promulgated from time to time by the State and county board of health or the city. The license of any person who fails or refuses to humanely treat such animals in his care, possession or custody shall be subject to suspension or revocation by the city council, in addition to any other penalties which may be imposed for such violation.

Sec. 6-27. Kennel standards.

- (a) All kennels, stables and pet shops shall comply with the minimum standards set forth by the zoning ordinances of the city.
- (b) The animals housed in dog kennels shall be cared for and maintained in such a manner as not to constitute a nuisance as set forth in this chapter.
- (c) The kennel facility shall be constructed to prevent strange dogs from gaining contact with dogs lodged in the kennel.

Sec. 6-28. Pet shop standards.

- (a) All pet shops shall be provided with proper sanitary receptacles that can be cleaned and flushed.
- (b) Before commencing any business of the pet shop, the proprietor shall secure a certificate from the county board of health approving the facilities of the pet shop. Thereafter, he shall comply with all regulations and requirements of the county board of health. A copy of the certificate shall be kept on the premises of the pet shop at all times. Any license or certification required by this article shall allow reasonable inspection by the city animal control officer and also by the county board of health.

DIVISION 2. LICENSE

Sec. 6-60. Required.

Any person who keeps or operates a shelter of any type shall first obtain a license therefore as provided in this division.

Sec. 6-61. Proof of vaccination.

Proof of vaccination of dogs against rabies shall be required with an application for a license under this division.

Sec. 6-62. Entitlement.

A license under this division shall entitle the holder, in the case of a private kennel, to keep any number of dogs not exceeding five (5) that are four (4) months or older. In the case of a private stable or boarding stable, the license shall entitle the holder to keep the number of animals so specified in the license.

Sec. 6-63. Serial number and nature.

All licenses shall have duly stamped or engraved thereon a serial number thereof and indicate the nature of the license, City of Romulus, Wayne County, Michigan; "Pet Shop License, City of Romulus, Wayne County, Michigan," or "Commercial Kennel," or "Boarding Stable, City of Romulus, Wayne County, Michigan."

Sec. 6-64. Fees.

- (a) Fees for licensing of private kennels, private stables, pet shops, commercial kennels and boarding stables shall be as adopted by resolution of city council.
- (b) The license fee shall be paid to the city treasurer upon application therefor.
- (c) The fees paid to the city treasurer are nonrefundable and nontransferable.

Sec. 6-65. Expiration.

All licenses for the operation of any kennel, boarding or private, boarding stable and pet shop shall expire upon the first of March of each year.

Sec. 6-66. Failure to obtain new license; penalties.

Failure to obtain new licenses on or before March second of each year, or within ten (10) days after the commencement of operation of any such stable, kennel, or pet shop, shall subject the owner or operator thereof to the penalties otherwise prescribed by the terms of this chapter.

ARTICLE III. DOGS AND CATS

DIVISION 1. GENERALLY

Sec. 6-91. Public nuisance.

It shall be a public nuisance for any person to keep, care for, or maintain a Dog or Cat in such a manner as to be a public nuisance, which include, but are not limited to dogs that repeatedly turn over garbage pails or damage gardens, flowers or vegetables, or to generally conduct itself in such a manner as to interfere with the reasonable use and enjoyment of property owned by others.

Sec. 6-92. Dog or Cat at large.

It shall be unlawful for any person who is the owner or keeping any Dog or Cat to allow, suffer or permit such Dog or Cat to run at large within the corporate limits of the city. However, any Dog or Cat on a leash or engaged in lawful training which is accompanied by the owner or keeper thereof and under reasonable control shall not be deemed to be running at large.

Sec. 6-93. Barking dog.

No person shall harbor or keep any dog which by loud or frequent barking, yelping or howling shall cause serious noise to any of the residents of the surrounding neighborhood.

Sec. 6-94. Dangerous dog.

- (a) No person shall keep or harbor a dog within the city which is known to kill, worry or injure livestock; to habitually and repeatedly chase vehicles, to habitually and repeatedly chase, snap, attack or bark at pedestrians on the public streets or walkways.
- (b) No person shall own, keep, or harbor any animal which has attacked, bitten or scratched any person, except in defense of his owner, family or property or exhibits a vicious nature and habitually molests passersby when lawfully on the public streets, regardless of whether or not said animal is on the public highway.

Sec. 6-95. Unsanitary curtilage kennel, pen, and house.

No person shall operate a commercial kennel, boarding stable, animal shelter, pen, corral, pet shop, private kennel, private stable or livestock barn that is an annoyance to nearby residents, and interferes with the reasonable use and enjoyment of their property by reason of noise, stench and unsanitary conditions.

Sec. 6-96. Vicious and rabid dogs.

- (a) It shall be the duty of every owner of an animal which has attacked or bitten a person or another animal showing symptoms of being rabid to immediately notify the city animal control officer or any city officer or employee charged with the duty or responsibility of enforcement of this chapter that they have such an animal in their possession.
- (b) Any person who shall have in his possession an animal which is rabid, an animal which has been bitten by or has been fighting with an animal which is rabid, which is suspected [of being rabid or an animal which shall have bitten] any person shall, upon demand of the city animal control officer, or any officer or employee of the city charged with the duty or responsibility of enforcement of this chapter, produce and surrender the animal to the city animal control officer to be held for observation and treatment. Upon approval of the city animal control officer, any such animal may be surrendered to a duly licensed veterinarian selected by the owner or, if he so desires, to any nonprofit organization in the business of sheltering animals.
- (c) Whenever any animal is suspected of being rabid is held, as provided in this division, for a period of ten (10) days, and it is determined that the animal is rabid, the city animal control officer shall cause to be issued a written order directing that such animal shall be destroyed.

Sec. 6-97. Defecation and urination.

No person owning or having custody or control of a dog shall intentionally or failing to exercise due care; (1) permit the dog to defecate on any public or private property (other than the property of such person) unless such person immediately collects all fecal matter deposited by the dog; (2) repeatedly permits the dog to urinate on private property (other than the property of such person).

Sec. 6-98. Cruelty.

No person shall treat any animal in a cruel or inhumane manner. No person shall own, keep, or harbor any animal, in a kennel or otherwise, willfully or negligently cause, or permit such animal to suffer unnecessary torture or pain. No person shall beat, kick, hit, bite, burn, or in any other manner cause an animal to suffer needlessly. No person shall confine a dog on a chain for more than four (4) hours unless the chain is over fifteen (15) feet and allows the dog free access to a suitable shelter. No person shall abandon any animal at a residence, drop off on a public road, or leave in a field.

Sec. 6-99. Owner's responsibility.

No person shall:

- (a) Fail to provide an animal with adequate care.
- (b) Cruelly drive, work, or beat an animal, or cause an animal to be cruelly driven, worked or beaten.
- (c) Carry or cause to be carried in or upon a vehicle or otherwise any live animal having the feet or legs tied together, other than an animal being transported for medical care, or a horse whose feet are hobbled to protect the horse during transport or in any other cruel or inhumane manner.
- (d) Carry or cause to be carried a live animal in or upon a vehicle or otherwise without providing a secure space, rack, car, crate, or cage, in which livestock may stand, and in which all other animals may stand, turn around, and lie down during transportation, or while awaiting slaughter. As used in this subdivision, for purposes of transportation of sled dogs, "stand" means sufficient vertical distance to allow the animal to stand without its shoulders touching the top of the crate or transportation vehicle.
- (e) Abandon an animal or cause an animal to be abandoned, in any place, without making provisions for the animal's adequate care, unless premises are temporarily vacated for the protection of human life during a disaster. An animal that is lost by an owner or custodian while traveling, walking, hiking or hunting shall not be regarded as abandoned under this section when the owner or custodian has made a reasonable effort to locate the animal.
- (f) Willfully or negligently allow an animal, including one who is aged, diseased, maimed, hopelessly sick, disabled, or nonambulatory to suffer unnecessary neglect, torture, or pain.

- (g) Tether a dog unless the tether is at least three (3) times the length of the dog as measured from the tip of its nose to the base of its tail and is attached to a harness or no choke collar designed for tethering.

Sec. 6-100. Picking Up Dog or Cat

Any person who picks up a stray dog or cat moving at large within the City of Romulus must report that event and deliver the animal to the Animal Shelter within 48 hours.

DIVISION 2. LICENSE

Sec. 6-127. Required.

- (a) It shall be unlawful for any person to own, possess or harbor a dog four (4) months or older for more than ten (10) days in the city without having obtained a license in compliance with the provisions set forth in this division. If a person becomes the owner of a dog that is four (4) or months old and not licensed he/she shall apply for a license within ten (10) days.
- (b) A person allowing an unlicensed Dog or Cat to remain or be lodged within his house, store, building, enclosure or premises or feed the Dog or Cat for a period of five (5) days or more shall be considered to be harboring or keeping the same within the meaning of this section.
- (c) A person who owns or harbors a dog shall produce proof of a valid license under the provisions of the ordinance upon the request of a person authorized to enforce the provision of this article.

Sec. 6-128. Application.

License application, including payment of the prescribed fee, shall be made to the city treasurer, who shall issue to each applicant a license to own or harbor an animal for the term commencing on the date of such license and terminating on the first day of March following the application, except as provided in this article. Applications for license under this section shall state the full name and address of the applicant and the breed, sex, age, color and markings of the animal and the name and address of the previous owner for which the license is issued and the name and address of the present owner of the animal.

Sec. 6-129. Proof of vaccination for rabies required.

- (a) No license shall be issued unless the application for license shall be accompanied by a certificate of vaccination for rabies signed by a licensed veterinarian.
- (b) Certificate of vaccination shall not expire more than one (1) month before the date on which the license would expire.

- (c) Any license issued shall be considered void whenever a vaccination for rabies has expired and the animal has not received an updated shot.

Sec. 6-130. Issuance.

After full compliance with all requirements for the issuance of licenses under this article, the city treasurer shall deliver to the applicant a check or disc containing the number of the license duly stamped thereon, together with the year and the words, "Romulus, Michigan."

Sec. 6-131. Fees.

All license fees shall be established by resolution as adopted by council from time to time.

Sec. 6-132. Collars and license tags.

A person owning, possessing or harboring a dog four (4) months or older shall provide the dog with a suitable collar of leather, iron, copper, brass or other durable material to which shall be securely attached the license tag.

Sec. 6-133. Lost tags.

Duplicate dog checks or discs, upon due proof of purchase thereof, shall be issued by the city treasurer, at a cost of fifty (50) percent of the original cost thereof.

Sec. 6-134. Term; when to be obtained.

Licenses shall be obtained on or before March first of each successive year, unless the license is for two (2) or three (3) years, in which case licenses shall be obtained on or before March first of each successive two (2) or three (3) years respectively.

Sec. 6-135. Transfer.

A dog license, once obtained, may be transferred to another dog at any time while the license is in good standing. The transfer shall be made and recorded by the city treasurer, upon the presentation to him of an application for transfer, prepared on forms provided by the city treasurer, proof of vaccination and the payment of a one dollar ($1.00) transfer fee, to be submitted concurrently with the application.

DIVISION 3. IMPOUNDMENT

Sec. 6-152. Animal control shelter.

There is hereby established a public animal control shelter for the city. The city animal control officers shall have such powers and duties as are provided in this article, and as may be prescribed from time to time. All expenses incurred in the erection, care, maintenance and operation of the animal control shelter shall be paid from the general fund of the city.

Sec. 6-153. Impoundment of animals and enforcement.

It shall be the duty of the animal control officer to promptly seize, take up and place in the animal control shelter all dogs that may be found, running at large, or animals abandoned, subject to cruelty, inadequately sheltered, vicious and diseased, or harbored or owned contrary to the provisions of this article.

Sec. 6-154. Release of animals and shelter fees.

- (a) No animal shall be released from the animal control shelter unless the owner or person entitled to demand the animal shall pay the city treasurer the sums as adopted by resolution of council from time to time for the care, custody, and feeding of the animal. Furthermore, he shall secure a proper license for the dog if the dog is not already duly licensed.
- (b) The animal control shelter shall keep a careful record of all animals received in the animal control shelter with a description of each animal so impounded and its disposition.

Sec. 6-155. Disposition of impounded dogs.

- (a) Destruction, sale. All healthy animals not claimed or released within four (4) working days or seven (7) working days if collar with ID or micro chip are on the animal after being impounded, and injured, diseased, and unhealthy animals after evaluation by animal control officers, may be humanely euthanized. If, in the judgment of the animal control shelter such dog could be sold, the same shall be sold at the animal control shelter, under the supervision and direction of the animal control shelter, or otherwise disposed of, in conformance with state law when applicable. No dog shall be sold except in compliance with this article.
- (b) Rabid or vicious animal. Any impounded animals that are rabid, or any animal that has attacked a person, shall be kept for such period of time and under such conditions as shall be prescribed by the county health department and it shall be the duty of the animal control shelter to notify the county health department whenever there is any good reason to believe that he has such an animal at the animal control shelter.

Sec. 6-156. Disposal of animals.

The bodies of all animals that have been destroyed under and according to the provisions of this division shall be disposed of in such a manner as shall be prescribed by the mayor.

Sec. 6-157. Altered.

No dog, cat or ferret shall be sold or adopted from the city animal shelter or from an animal protection shelter until it has first been altered or the owner has entered into a contract with the animal control shelter or a protection shelter in a form provided by the animal control shelter or animal protection shelter, for the alteration of the dog, cat or ferret as provided in this article.

Sec. 6-158. Contract for alteration.

The contract for alteration shall require:

- (a) The alteration to be performed by a qualified veterinarian within four (4) weeks after the date of adoption if the dog, cat or ferret is four (4) months of age or older at the time of adoption;
- (b) The alteration shall be performed within four (4) weeks of the date when the dog, cat or ferret became four (4) months old;
- (c) That a veterinarian shall certify in writing that the dog, cat or ferret has serious permanent medical or health problems that prevent alteration; or
- (d) That a veterinarian shall certify that alteration poses serious, temporary medical or health problems to the dog, cat, or ferret in which case re-evaluation by a veterinarian shall take place at intervals not to exceed fourteen (14) days until the temporary problem has resolved, at which time the alteration shall take place within seven (7) days;
- (e) That a deposit of twenty-five dollars ($25.00) be paid to the animal control shelter or animal protection shelter to assure compliance with the above. If the new owner fails to comply with the terms of the contract, the deposit shall be forfeited.
- (f) The deposit shall be returned by the animal control shelter or animal protection shelter if a new owner submits written certification from a veterinarian on a form provided by the animal control shelter or animal protection shelter, either that the dog, cat or ferret died within the time periods set forth in (a), (b), (c) or (d) or the owner complied with the terms of (a), (b), (c) or (d).
- (g) That the new owner shall be liable for liquidated damage the greater of one hundred dollars ($100.00) or the actual reasonable costs incurred by the animal control shelter or animal protection shelter in enforcement of the contract.

Sec. 6-159. Waiver.

The provisions of this section 6-112 shall not apply, if:

- (a) A dog is transferred to a local, state or federal law enforcement agency.

- (b) A dog is transferred to an organization or trainer that trains guide or leader dogs for blind persons, hearing dogs for deaf or auditory impaired persons, or service dogs for physically limited persons.
- (c) A dog, cat or ferret is transferred to another animal control shelter or animal protection shelter or is transferred to a person who will transfer the animal to another animal control shelter or animal protection shelter. Before the first animal control shelter or animal protection shelter releases the animal, it shall obtain from the person to whom the animal is to be released a written statement by the second animal control shelter or animal protection shelter that it is willing to accept the animal for purposes of adoption or humane euthanasia. Promptly after receipt of the animal by the second animal control shelter or animal protection shelter, the person to whom the animal was released shall provide the first animal control shelter or animal protection shelter with a written statement by the second animal control shelter or animal protection shelter containing a description of the dog, cat, or ferret and acknowledging its receipt on a date specified in the statement.

ARTICLE IV. HORSES AND LIVESTOCK

Sec. 6-187. Public nuisance.

It shall be unlawful for any person to keep, care for, or maintain a horse or livestock in such a manner as to be a public nuisance.

Sec. 6-188. Horse at large.

No person owning or keeping any horse shall suffer, allow or permit such horse to run at large within the corporate limits of the city, except accompanied by and under the reasonable control of the owner or keeper thereof.

Sec. 6-189. Trespass.

No horse or livestock at large or accompanied by its owner or keeper shall be permitted to trespass upon the property of another person.

Sec. 6-190. Riding on public streets, roads and ways.

No person shall be permitted to ride a horse or other equine upon any paved road, or the right-of-way thereof, in the city unless the paved road shall have been designated for pleasure riding by the traffic control officer for such right and excepting where crossing the public streets, roads and ways.

Sec. 6-191. Unsanitary stable or corral.

No person may permit any condition to exist upon his premises where the horses or livestock are located that is likely to cause any offensive smells or to create noises such as to interfere with the reasonable and peaceful use and enjoyment of the neighboring property owners.

Sec. 6-192. Diseased or unhealthy horse or livestock.

No person shall possess, keep or harbor a diseased or unhealthy horse or livestock in violation of the state, county and city health regulations.

ARTICLE V. WILD AND EXOTIC ANIMALS, REPTILES, FOWL AND SMALL ANIMALS

Sec. 6-223. Possession.

It shall be unlawful for any person to possess, keep or maintain any wild or exotic animal or any poisonous reptiles.

Sec. 6-224. Sale.

It shall be unlawful for any person to keep for sale or offer for sale any reptile or any wild or exotic animal unless licensed by the state or federal government.

Sec. 6-225. Diseased and unhealthy fowl, small animals.

No person shall keep, possess, or maintain fowl or small animals upon his premises that are diseased, or contrary to state, county and city health regulations.

Savings Clause: Nothing in this Ordinance hereby adopted shall be construed to affect any suit or proceeding pending in any court or administrative body, or any rights acquired, or liability incurred, or any cause or causes of action acquired or existing, under any Act or Ordinance hereby repealed by this Ordinance; nor shall any just or legal right or remedy of any character be lost, impaired, or affected by this Ordinance.

Severability: Should any word, sentence, phrase, or any portion of this Ordinance be held in any manner invalid by any court of competent jurisdiction or by any state agency having authority to do so for any reason whatsoever, such holdings shall be construed and limited to such word, sentence, phrase or any portion of the Ordinance held to be so invalid and shall not be construed as affecting the validity of any of the remaining words, sentences, phrases, or portions of this Ordinance.

Conflicting Ordinances: All prior existing ordinances adopted by the City of Romulus inconsistent or in conflict with the provisions of this Ordinance are, to the extent of such conflict or inconsistency, hereby expressly repealed.

Readings: This Ordinance shall be given a first reading on February 22, 2016, shall be enacted on March 7, 2016, and shall be published on or before and shall be effective March 24, 2016.

ADOPTED, APPROVED AND PASSED by the City Council of the City of Romulus this 7th day of March, 2016.

LEROY BURCROFF, Mayor

ELLEN L. CRAIG- BRAGG, CMC, City Clerk

I hereby certify that the foregoing is a true copy of the Ordinance as passed by the City Council of the City of Romulus at a regular Council Meeting held in the City Council Room in said City on the 7th day of March, 2016.

ELLEN L. CRAIG-BRAGG, CMC, City Clerk

I further certify that the foregoing was published in Romulus Roman, a newspaper of general circulation in the City of Romulus, on the 24th day of March, 2016.

ELLEN L. CRAIG-BRAGG, CMC, City Clerk

Within forty-five (45) days after publication of any ordinance duly passed by the Council, a petition may be presented to the Council protesting against such ordinance continuing in effect.
Said petition shall contain the text of such ordinance and shall be signed by not less than six percent (6%) of the registered electors registered at the last preceding election at which a Mayor of the City was elected. Said ordinance shall thereupon and thereby be suspended from operation and the Council shall immediately reconsider such ordinance.
