

AN ORDINANCE

AN ORDINANCE TO AMEND THE CODE OF THE CITY OF HINESVILLE, GEORGIA, CHAPTER 15, ARTICLE II, SECTIONS 15-25 THROUGH 15-39, TO PROVIDE FOR AN EFFECTIVE DATE; AND FOR OTHER PURPOSES ALLOWED BY LAW.

WITNESSETH

WHEREAS, the duly elected governing authority of the City of Hinesville, Georgia is authorized under Article 9, Section 2, of the Constitution of the State of Georgia to enact reasonable ordinances to protect the health, safety and general welfare of the public; and

WHEREAS, the duly elected governing authority of the City of Hinesville, Georgia is the Mayor and City Council thereof;

WHEREAS, The Mayor and Council are authorized to establish procedures for the collection and administration of the Hotel-Motel Excise Tax as imposed by the City and desire to amend the Code to ensure proper collection and administration thereof;

WHEREAS, the Code of the City of Hinesville sets forth the standards for review and procedures for amending any provisions of the said Code;

WHEREAS, the objective of the Mayor and Council is to ensure the Hotel-Motel Excise Tax imposed by the City is properly collected and administered;

WHEREAS, the City Council is authorized to determine the most effective method for the collection and administration of the City's Hotel-Motel Excise Tax;

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED, by the Mayor and Council of the City of Hinesville, and it is hereby ordained by the authority of same, that CHAPTER 15, ARTICLE II, SECTIONS 15-25 THROUGH 15-39 of the Code of the City of Hinesville is amended to read as follows:

SECTION I ORDINANCE TEXT

Sec. 15-25. Definitions.

The following words, terms and phrases shall, for the purposes of this article and except where the context clearly indicates a different meaning, be defined as follows:

Due date means the twentieth (20th) day after the end of the monthly period for which tax is to be computed.

Estimated tax liability means the lodging provider's prospective tax liability based upon the average monthly tax remittance in the prior fiscal year, as adjusted for change in tax rate or substantial change in circumstances due to damage to the hotel.

Folio means the primary documentation produced by a hotel that demonstrates interaction between the lodging provider and the occupant, and which, at a minimum, reflects the name and address given by the occupant, the date(s) of occupancy, the amount of rent charged for each date together with the amounts of applicable excise tax, and the method(s) of payment.

Guest room means accommodations occupied, or intended, arranged, or designated for occupancy, by one (1) or more occupants for the purpose of living quarters or residential use.

Hotel means any facility or any portion of a facility, including any lodging house, rooming house, dormitory, Turkish bath, bachelor hotel, studio hotel, motel, motor hotel, auto or trailer court, truck stop, tourist cabin, campground, lodge, inn, timeshare or other condominium, apartment community, public club, or private club, containing guestrooms and which is occupied, or is intended or designed for occupancy, by paying guests, whether rent is paid in money, goods, labor or otherwise. Such term does not include any jail, hospital, asylum, sanitarium, orphanage, prison, detention center, or other facility in which human beings are housed and detained under legal restraint.

Lodging provider means any person operating a hotel in the City, including, but not limited to, the owner or proprietor of such premises, the lessee, sub-lessee, lender in possession, licensee, or any other person otherwise operating such hotel; and who is subject to the taxation imposed for furnishing for value to the public any rooms, lodgings or accommodations.

Monthly Period means a calendar month.

Occupancy means the use or possession, or the right to the use or possession of any room or apartment in a hotel, or the right to the use or possession of the furnishings or to the services and accommodations accompanying the use and possession of the room.

Occupant or guest means any person who, for a consideration, uses, possesses, or has the right to use or possess any room in a hotel under any lease, concession, permit, right of access, license to use, or other agreement, or otherwise.

Permanent resident means any occupant who, as of a given date, has or shall have occupied or has or shall have the right of occupancy of any guest room in a hotel for not less than thirty (30) continuous days next preceding such date.

Person means any individual, firm, partnership, joint venture, association, social club, fraternal organization, joint stock company, corporation, nonprofit corporation, cooperative, estate, trust, business trust, receiver, trustee, syndicate, or any other group or combination acting as a unit, the plural as well as the singular number; excepting the United States of America, the State, and any political subdivision of either thereof upon which the City is without power to impose the tax herein provided.

Rent means the consideration received for occupancy valued in money, whether received in money or otherwise, including all receipts, cash, credits, and property or services of any kind or nature, and also the amount for which credit is allowed by the lodging provider to the occupant, without any deduction therefrom whatsoever.

Return means any return filed or required to be filed as herein provided.

Tax means the tax imposed by this article, as provided for by O.C.G.A. § 48-13-50, et seq., specifically O.C.G.A. § 48-13-51.
(Code 1978, § 16-31; Ord. No. 1994-02, 5-5-1994)

Sec. 15-26. Imposition and rate of tax.

There is hereby levied and imposed, and there shall be paid for every occupancy of a guest room in a hotel in the City, a tax at the rate of five percent (5%) of the amount of rent; provided that levy and collection of that portion of such tax amounting to two percent (2%) of the rent which is required to be expended for the purpose of promoting tourism, conventions, and trade shows, or for other purposes provided in O.C.G.A. § 48-13-51(a)(3), shall be suspended during periods of time during which the City has no contract for the expenditure of such funds with the State, a department of the State government, a State authority, or a private sector nonprofit organization, or a contract with some combination of such entities. Written notice of the dates of the beginning and end of such periods of suspension shall be given to each lodging provider of a hotel in the City on or before the date immediately preceding the date each period begins and ends by the City Clerk or his or her designee. Such notice shall be deemed sufficient if delivered to any person authorized to collect rent for the lodging provider of the hotel to whom notice is required to be given.

(Code 1978, § 16-32; Ord. No. 1994-02, 5-5-1994)

Sec. 15-27. Collection of tax by lodging provider.

(a) Every lodging provider furnishing guest rooms in a hotel within the City shall collect a tax of five percent (5%) on the amount of rent from the occupant unless an exemption is provided under Section 15-28. The lodging provider shall provide a receipt to each occupant, which receipt shall reflect both the amount of rent and the amounts of this and other tax applicable. This tax shall be due from the occupant, and shall be collected by the lodging provider at the same time that the rent is collected. The lodging provider shall be liable to the City for the full amount received or collected as tax, whether collected appropriately or inappropriately; and for any amount of tax that should have been collected, but was not.

(b) Any person who receives or collects the tax, or any consideration represented to be the tax, from another person holds the amount so collected in trust for the benefit of the City and is liable to the City for the full amount collected, plus penalty and interest.

(c) An individual who controls or supervises the collection of the tax from another person, or an individual who controls the accounting for or remittance of the tax, and who willfully fails to remit or cause the tax to be remitted, is liable as a responsible individual for an amount equal to the tax not remitted or caused to be remitted, plus penalty and interest. The dissolution of a corporation, partnership or other business or fraternal association does not affect a responsible individual's liability under this subsection. Furthermore, the liability imposed by this subsection shall be in addition to any other penalty provided by law.

Sec. 15-28. Exemptions.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this article, no tax shall be collected from an occupant upon the fees charged for any rooms, lodging, or accommodations:

(a) Furnished to the occupant for use as meeting rooms;

(b) After the occupant has become a permanent resident of the hotel;

(c) From an occupant who certifies in writing that he or she is staying in such accommodations as a result of his or her residence having been destroyed by fire or other casualty;

(d) From the United States and the State of Georgia or any instrumentality of either thereof;

(e) From any official or employee of the State of Georgia, its units of local government or any instrumentality of the State of Georgia, when traveling on official business and presenting written substantiation thereof or paying by State or local government credit or debit card;

(f) From a foreign sovereign enjoying exemption by treaty or consular convention, when presenting substantiation issued by the United States Department of State;

(g) When occupancy is provided without charge in money or otherwise.

Sec. 15-29. Registration of lodging provider.

(a) Every person engaging or about to engage in business as a lodging provider in the City shall immediately register with the City Clerk on a form provided by him or her. Persons engaged in such business must so register not later than thirty (30) days after the date that this article becomes effective, but such privilege of registration after the imposition of such tax shall not relieve any person from the obligation of payment or collection of tax on and after the date of imposition thereof. Such registration shall set forth the name under which such person transacts business or intends to transact business, the location of his or her place or places of business and such other information that would facilitate the administration of the tax as prescribed by the City Clerk. The registration shall be signed by the owner if a natural person; by a member or partner in case of ownership by an association or partnership; and by an executive officer in the case of ownership by a corporation

(b) Should the City Clerk deem it necessary in order to facilitate registration, he or she may prescribe administrative provisions therefor other than those provided in this Section. Such provisions shall be made to effect the purposes hereof.

Sec. 15-30. Certificate of taxing authority.

Upon the registration of a lodging provider as provided in Section 15-28(a), the City Clerk shall issue to such lodging provider without charge a certificate of authority to collect the tax from the occupants. Each certificate shall state the name and location of the business to which it is applicable. A separate registration shall be required for each place of business of a lodging provider. Such certificates shall be nonassignable and nontransferable, and shall be returned immediately to the City Clerk upon cessation of business by the registered lodging provider at the location name, or upon sale or transfer of such business at such location.

Sec. 15-31. Determination generally.

(a) Due date of taxes. All taxes levied and imposed by this article shall be due and payable to the City monthly on or before the twentieth (20th) day of every month next succeeding each respective monthly period in which such taxes are collected. The tax shall become delinquent for any monthly period after the twentieth (20th) day of each succeeding month during which it remains unpaid.

(b) Penalty and interest for failure to pay tax by due date. A lodging provider who fails to make any return or to pay the amount of tax as prescribed shall be assessed a specific penalty to be added to the tax in the amount of five percent (5%) or five dollars ($5.00), whichever is greater, if the failure is for one (1) month or less; and an additional five percent (5%) or five dollars ($5.00), whichever is greater, for each additional month or fraction thereof in which such failure shall continue; provided, however, that the aggregate penalty for any single violation shall not exceed twenty-five percent (25%) or twenty-five dollars ($25.00), whichever is greater. Delinquent amounts shall bear interest at the rate of one percent (1%) per month, or fraction thereof, until paid in full.

(c) Acceptance of delinquent return and remittance without imposing penalty and interest; authority; requirements. If the failure to make any return or to pay the amount of tax by the due date results from providential cause shown to the satisfaction of the governing authority of the City by affidavit attached to the return, and remittance is made within ten (10) days of the due date, such return may be accepted exclusive of penalty and interest.

(d) Waiving of penalty and interest; authority. O.C.G.A. § 48-2-41, relating to the authority to waive interest, and O.C.G.A. § 48-2-43, relating to the authority to waive penalty, shall apply; provided, however, that the governing authority shall stand in lieu of the Georgia Commissioner of Revenue, and the City shall stand in lieu of the State.

(e) Penalty for fraud. In the case of a false or fraudulent return, or of failure to file a return and where willful intent exists to defraud the City of any tax due, a penalty of fifty percent (50%) of the amount due shall be assessed.

Sec. 15-32. Returns and time of filing; remittance of tax; lodging providers required to file; contents.

(a) On or before the twentieth (20th) day of the month following each monthly period, a return for the preceding monthly period, together with the appropriate remittance, shall be filed with the City Clerk. The return shall report the gross rent, taxable rent, exempt rent, amount of tax collected or otherwise due for the period, and such other information as may be required by the City Clerk.

(b) If the estimated tax liability for any monthly period exceeds two thousand five hundred dollars ($2500.00) for a lodging provider who, in the prior fiscal year remitted tax greater than two thousand five hundred dollars ($2500.00) in any three (3) consecutive months, such lodging provider shall file an estimated return and remit not less than fifty percent (50%) of the estimated tax liability for the monthly period by the twentieth (20th) day of that same monthly period. The amount of tax so remitted shall be credited against the amount to be due with the regular return for the monthly period, to be filed on the twentieth (20th) day of the succeeding month.

(c) The governing authority of the City may, for good cause, extend the time for making returns for not longer than thirty (30) days. No extension shall be valid unless granted in writing upon written application of the lodging provider. Such grant may not be applicable for longer than twelve (12) consecutive months. A lodging provider granted an extension shall remit tax equaling not less than one hundred percent (100%) of the tax paid for the corresponding period of the prior fiscal year; such remittance to be made on or before the date the tax would otherwise come due without the grant of extension. No penalty or interest shall be charged during the first ten (10) days of the extension period.

Thereafter, interest shall be collected on the unpaid balance at the rate of one percent (1%) per month.

Sec. 15-33. Collection fee allowed lodging providers.

Lodging providers collecting the tax levied hereunder shall be allowed a percentage of the tax due and accounted for, and shall be reimbursed in the form of a deduction in submitting, reporting, and payment of the amount due, if said amount is not delinquent at the time of payment. The rate of the deduction shall be three percent (3%) of the amount due, but only if the amount due was not delinquent at the time of payment. If the amount due was delinquent at the time of payment, no deduction shall be permitted.

Sec. 15-34. Deficiency determinations.

(a) Recomputation of tax, authority to make; basis of recomputation. If the City Clerk is not satisfied with the return or returns of the tax or the amount of the tax required to be paid to the City by any lodging provider, he or she may compute and determine the amount required to be paid upon the basis of any information in his or her possession or which may come into his or her possession. One (1) or more deficiency determinations may be made of the amount due for one (1) or more monthly periods.

(b) Penalty and interest for failure to pay tax. Penalty and interest shall be assessed upon the amount of the unpaid tax found to be due, as provided in Section 15-31(b) from and after the twentieth (20th) day of the month following the monthly period for which the amount should have been returned until the date of payment of such tax and interest.

(c) Offsetting of overpayments. In making a determination, the City Clerk may offset overpayments for a period, against unpaid tax found to be due for another period, against penalties, and against the interest on such unpaid tax.

(d) Notice of determination; service of. The City Clerk, or his or her designated representative, shall give to the lodging provider written notice of his determination. The notice may be served personally or by mail. If by mail, such service shall be addressed to the lodging provider at his address as it appears in the records of the City. Service by mail is complete when delivered by certified mail with a receipt signed by the addressee, or when made by statutory overnight delivery.

(e) Time within which notice of deficiency determination to be mailed. Except in cases of failure to make a return or of fraud, every notice of a deficiency determination shall be mailed within three (3) years after the twentieth (20th) day of the calendar month following the monthly period for which the amount is proposed to be determined, or within three (3) years after the return is filed, whichever period shall last expire.

(f) Appeal or protest of deficiency determination. The procedure for contesting a deficiency determination shall be as provided by O.C.G.A. § 48-5-380.

Sec. 15-35. Determination if no return made.

(a) Estimate of gross receipts. If any lodging provider fails to make a return, the City Clerk shall make an estimate of the amount of the gross receipts of the lodging provider or, as the case may be, of the amount of the lodging provider's total rentals in the City which are subject to the tax. The estimate shall be made for the period or periods in respect to which the lodging provider failed to make the return and shall be based upon any information that is or may come into the possession of the City Clerk.

(b) Offsetting of overpayments. In making a determination, the City Clerk may offset overpayments for a period, against unpaid tax found to be due for another period, against penalties, and against interest on unpaid tax found to be due. The interest on such unpaid tax shall be computed in the manner set forth in section 15-31(b).

(c) Interest on amount found due. The amount of the unpaid tax found to be due shall bear interest at the rate as provided in Section 15-31(b), from and after the twentieth (20th) day of the month following the monthly period for which the amount should have been returned until the date of payment of such tax, penalties and interest.

(d) Notice of determination; service of. Promptly after making his determination, the City Clerk shall give to the lodging provider written notice of his determination, which notice may be served personally or by mail in the manner prescribed in section 15-34(d).

Sec. 15-36. Collection of tax by the City.

(a) Action for tax; time for. When it is determined by a return filed, or by the City Clerk having made a determination under the provisions of Section 15-34 or Section 15-35, that tax is due and payable to the City under the provisions of this article, the City Manager may at any time within three (3) years after determination that such tax is due and payable, bring an action in a court of competent jurisdiction in the name of the City to collect the amount of tax payable to the City together with interest thereon and penalties, court costs, attorney's fees and other legal fees incident thereto. The bringing of such an action shall not be a prerequisite for the issuance of a fi. fa. under the provisions of subsection (d) of this Section.

(b) Lodging provider selling or quitting business. If any lodging provider liable for any amount under this article sells out his business or quits his business, he shall make a final return and remittance within fifteen (15) days after the date of selling or quitting the business.

(c) Duty of successors or assignees of lodging provider to withhold tax from purchase money. If any lodging provider liable for any amount of tax under this article sells or transfers his business, his successors or assignees shall withhold a sufficient amount of the purchase price of the business to cover such amount of tax, interest thereon, and penalties, and pay such sum over to the City unless the lodging provider liable for such tax delivers to such purchaser or transferee, as the case may be, at the time of such sale or transfer, a certificate from the City Clerk showing that all tax returns required of such lodging provider have been filed and all taxes shown as being payable on such returns have been paid in full.

(d) Liability for failure to withhold; time to enforce successor's liability. If the purchaser or transferee of a business fails to withhold the required amount of the purchase price, he shall be personally liable for the payment of the amount required to be withheld by him to the extent of the purchase price, valued in money. The time within which the obligation of a successor may be enforced shall start to run at the time the lodging provider sells or transfers his business, or at the time that the determination against the lodging provider becomes final, whichever event occurs later.

(e) Issuance of fi. fa. The City Clerk is hereby authorized to issue a fi. fa. for execution and levy to satisfy the amount of any tax, penalty or interest due but not paid under the provisions of this article.

(f) Credit for tax, penalty or interest paid more than once or erroneously or illegally collected. Whenever the amount of any tax, penalty or interest has been paid more than once, or has been erroneously or illegally collected or received by the City, it may be refunded by the Mayor and City Council. If the lodging provider determines that he or she has overpaid or paid more than once, which fact has not been determined by the City Clerk, the lodging provider shall have three (3) years from the date of payment to file a claim in writing stating the specific ground upon which the claim is founded. The claimant may request a hearing before the Mayor and City Council at which the claim and any other information will be considered. The Mayor and City Council shall approve or disapprove the claim, and notify the claimant of their action.

Sec. 15-37. Administration of this article; record keeping.

(a) Authority of the City Clerk. The City Clerk, under supervision of the City Manager, shall administer and enforce the provisions of this article for the levy and collection of the tax imposed by this article.

(b) Rules and regulations. The City Clerk shall have the power and authority to make and publish reasonable rules and regulations not inconsistent with this article or other ordinances of the City, or the laws of the State, or the constitution of this State or the United States, for the administration and enforcement of the provisions of this article and the collection of the taxes hereunder.

(c) Records required from lodging providers, etc., form. Every lodging provider renting guest rooms in the City shall keep, for a minimum of three (3) years, all folios, receipts, invoices, certificates of exemption and such other documents as the City Clerk may prescribe, and in such form as he or she may require. Said records shall at all times be available for examination within the City.

(d) Examination of records; audits. The City Clerk or any person authorized in writing by him or her may examine the books, papers, records, financial reports, equipment and other facilities of any lodging provider renting guest rooms and any lodging provider liable for the tax, in order to verify the accuracy of any return made, or if no return is made by the lodging provider, to ascertain and determine the amount of tax required to be paid. Such examination shall be conducted at the place of lodging provision, unless the City Clerk shall stipulate another place within the City.

(e) Authority to require reports; contents. In the administration of the provisions of this article, the City Clerk may require the filing of reports by any person or class of persons having in their possession or custody information relating to rentals of guestrooms which are subject to tax. The reports shall be filed with the City Clerk when required by him or her and shall set forth the rental charged for each occupancy, the date(s) of occupancy, the basis for exemption, and such other information as he or she may require.

(f) Limitation on disclosure of business of lodging providers, etc. The City Clerk or any person having an administrative duty under this article shall not make known in any manner the business affairs, operations, or information obtained by an audit of books, papers, records, financial reports, equipment and other facilities of any lodging provider or any other person visited or examined in the discharge of official duty, or the amount or source of income, profits, losses, expenditures, or any particular thereof, set forth or disclosed in any return, or permit any return or copy thereof or any book containing any abstract or particulars thereof to be seen or examined by any person not having such administrative duty under this article except in the case of judicial proceedings or other proceedings necessary to collect the tax hereby levied and assessed. Successors, receivers, trustees, executors, administrators, assignees and guarantors, if directly interested, may be given information as to the items included in the measure and amount of unpaid tax or amounts of tax, interest and penalties required to be collected.

Sec. 15-38. Agents for receiving notices.

When registering pursuant to Section 15-29, each lodging provider shall appoint, in writing, an agent to receive for the lodging provider any notice required to be given to the lodging provider under the provisions of this article, stating the full name, street address, mailing address and telephone number of such agent. Such agent shall be either an individual resident of the City or an employee of the lodging provider who regularly works at the lodging provider's place of business. The appointment of the agent must be accompanied by the written consent of such agent to serve as agent for the lodging provider. Such agent may be changed from time to time by written appointment, and consent of the successor agent. The lodging provider is required to have such an agent at all times, and should an agent cease to be a resident of the City or an employee regularly working at the lodging provider's place of business in the City, as the case may be, the lodging provider shall immediately file a written appointment of a new agent and such agent's consent to serve as such with the City Clerk. Any agent so appointed by a lodging provider shall be authorized to receive for and on behalf of the lodging provider any notice required to be given to the lodging provider by the provisions of this article. Delivery of any such notice to such agent, in person or by mail, shall be sufficient to meet the requirements of this article and such notice shall be binding on the lodging provider. This method of giving notice to lodging providers is supplementary and cumulative of the other methods of given notice set forth in this article.

Sec. 15-39. Violations; fines and punishment.

(a) Any lodging provider or other person who fails, neglects, or refuses to collect the tax as provided in any of the provisions of this article shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine of not more than one hundred dollars ($100.00), or confinement for term not to exceed three (3) months, or both fine and confinement.

(b) Any lodging provider or other person who fails or refuses to make any return or any supplemental return as provided by Section 15-31 and/or Section 15-32, to keep adequate records or to open them for inspection by the City, or to furnish other data reasonably requested by the City Clerk or his or her designee, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine of not more than one hundred dollars ($100.00), or confinement for a term not to exceed three (3) months, or both.

(c) Any lodging provider or other person who makes a false or fraudulent return with intent to evade the tax imposed by this article, or any person required to make, render, sign, or verify any report who makes a false or fraudulent report, with intent to defeat or evade the determination of an amount due required by this article, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars ($100.00), nor more than three hundred dollars ($300.00), or confinement for a term not to exceed three (3) months, or both.

(d) Each and every day or portion thereof during which any violation of any provision of this article is committed, continued, or permitted shall constitute a separate offense and shall be punished accordingly.
