(d) An applicant offender may not be denied access into the pretrial diversion program based solely on the inability of the offender to pay the application fee. Application fees may be waived or reduced or delayed for just cause, including indigency of the offender, at the discretion of the City. Any determination of the indigency of the offender for purposes of program fee mitigation shall be made by the City, but shall be granted only upon the determination by the Municipal Court Judge that there is no reasonable likelihood within the reasonably foreseeable future that the offender will have the ability to pay the application fee.

The offender shall also enter a plea of guilty to the charge or charges involved. If the Municipal Court Judge rejects the agreement and guilty plea, any money paid by the offender in satisfaction of the application fee shall be refunded to the offender. The offender shall be liable for any actual expenses already incurred by the City Prosecutor or any agency or service provider in furtherance of the application and evaluation process and the same will be deducted from any money so refunded to the offender.

(b) Upon approval of the agreement and acceptance of the guilty plea, the Court shall expressly retain jurisdiction of the case, any other provision of law notwithstanding, and may withdraw and file the case or otherwise place it on an administrative docket until such time as the court has been notified that the offender has fulfilled the terms of the agreement, has been terminated from the program, or otherwise withdrawn from the program. Imposition of punishment by the Court shall be deferred until the offender has successfully completed the program or is terminated from the program.

(c) In the event the offender withdraws or is terminated from the program, the Municipal Court Judge shall impose appropriate punishment in the same manner as with any plea of guilty or finding of guilty and shall not be bound by the terms of agreement as to what punishment to impose.

(d) Upon successful completion of the program by the offender, the City Prosecutor shall notify the Municipal Court Judge in writing of the fact together with a request that the Court enter an order of disposition of the case pursuant to the agreement between the offender and the City Prosecutor.

No costs, fees, restitution, or assessments shall be waived or remitted, absent an express agreement to that effect between the City Prosecutor and the offender, without a finding by the Municipal Court Judge that the offender does not have the reasonable ability to pay the same within the reasonably foreseeable future.

SECTION 11

SECTION 12

(a) In no event shall the city prosecutor or any other agency or service provider have any liability, criminal or civil, for the conduct of any offender while participating in the pretrial diversion program unless the event was foreseeable or for acceptance of an offender into the program.

SECTION 13

(a) The provisions of this act are severable. If any part of this act is declared invalid or unconstitutional, that declaration shall not affect the part which remains.

SECTION 14

(a) All laws or parts of laws which conflict with this act are repealed.

SECTION 15
