

ORDINANCE 16-3183

AN ORDINANCE OF THE CITY OF BEDFORD, TEXAS SETTING FORTH REGISTRATION REQUIREMENTS AND CREDIT EXTENSION GUIDELINES FOR CREDIT ACCESS BUSINESSES; CONTAINING A SAVINGS CLAUSE; PROVIDING A PENALTY CLAUSE; AND PROVIDING AN EFFECTIVE DATE.

WHEREAS, the City of Bedford, Texas is a home rule city acting under its Charter adopted by the electorate pursuant to Article XI, Section 5 of the Texas Constitution and Chapter 9 of the Local Government Code; and,

WHEREAS, the City of Bedford, Texas contains credit access businesses, which provide payday loans and advances to consumers who work and reside within the City; and,

WHEREAS, the City Council of the City of Bedford has determined that certain credit access businesses engage in abusive and predatory lending practices, offering easy money to those members of our community who are in a tight spot with onerous terms and fees; and,

WHEREAS, the practices of certain credit access businesses cause members of our community to become trapped in a cycle of short term, high interest loans resulting in large debt and huge payments; and,

WHEREAS, the Pew Charitable Trusts, in their publication entitled Payday Lending in America: Who Borrows, Where they Borrow, and Why, (July 2012), wrote that “payday loans are sold as two-week credit products that provide fast cash, but borrowers are actually indebted for an average of five months per year.” The report further noted that “on average, a borrower takes out eight loans of $375 each per year and spends $520 on interest;” and,

WHEREAS, the Pew Charitable Trusts, in their publication entitled Payday Lending in America: Who Borrows, Where they Borrow, and Why, (July 2012), also noted: “How much borrowers spend on loans depends heavily on the fees permitted by their state. The same $500 storefront loan would generally cost about $55 in Florida, $75 in Nebraska, $87.50 in Alabama, and $100 in Texas, even if it were provided by the same national company in all those states. Previous research has found that lenders tend to charge the maximum permitted in a state;” and,

WHEREAS, the Pew Charitable Trusts, in their publication entitled Payday Lending in America: Who Borrows, Where they Borrow, and Why, (July 2012), also stated that “the vast majority of borrowers use the loans on a long-term basis, not temporary one. Thus it seems that the payday loan industry is selling a product few people use as designed and that imposes debt that is consistently more costly and longer lasting than advertised;” and,

WHEREAS, the Community Financial Services Association of America (CFSA), the national trade association for companies that offer small dollar, short-term loans or payday advances includes the following in the “Member Best Practices” as listed on its Internet site (<http://cfsaa.com/cfsa-member-best-practices.aspx>): “Members shall not allow customers to rollover a payday advance (the extension of an outstanding advance by payment of only a fee) unless expressly authorized by state law, but in such cases where authorized will limit rollovers to four or the state limit, whichever is less.” The need for consumer understanding was also outlined on this website: “A contract between a member and the customer must fully outline the terms of the payday advance transaction. Members agree to disclose the cost of the service fee both as a dollar amount and as an annual percentage rate (“APR”);” and,

WHEREAS, the Center for Responsible Lending, a non-profit, non-partisan organization, states on its internet site (<http://www.responsiblelending.org/other-consumer-loans/tools-resources/fast-facts.html>) that: “car title loans are based on the value of a borrower’s car - the ability to repay the loans is not factor in the lending decision...”; “loan rates for a car title are typically 20-30 times that of rates charged by credit card issuers...”; “the average car title customer renews their loan 8 times...”; and, “on a $500 title loan, this average customer will pay back $650 in interest over eight months; the principal borrowed will be in addition;” and,

WHEREAS, lenders hold onto the motor vehicle title and when borrowers cannot continue to pay the fees, they can lose their vehicles, which can drastically affect the borrower’s means of transportation for work and other essential household functions; and,

WHEREAS, the City Council of the City of Bedford, Texas hereby finds and determines that the regulation of credit access businesses as set forth herein is in the best interest of the public and is in furtherance of the public health, safety, morals, and general welfare.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF BEDFORD:
