

ORDINANCE 23-04

AN ORDINANCE OF THE TOWN OF REDINGTON SHORES, FLORIDA, REPEALING AND REPLACING CHAPTER 71 (CURFEW); MAKING RELATED FINDINGS; AND PROVIDING FOR CODIFICATION, SEVERABILITY, AND FOR AN EFFECTIVE DATE.

WHEREAS, Chapter 71 of the Redington Shores Town Code, addressing a juvenile curfew, dates to Ordinance 77-2, adopted on March 1st 1977; and

WHEREAS, Chapter 71 has not been amended since its adoption; and

WHEREAS, in the decades since the adoption of Chapter 71, substantial state and federal caselaw has been promulgated which has clarified the constitutional issues and limitations surrounding curfews in general and juvenile curfews in particular; and

WHEREAS, the Redington Shores Town Commission (the Commission) finds that a need exists to protect youth from harm and victimization, to protect the safety and well-being of the youth, and to reduce crime and violence committed by unsupervised youth; and

WHEREAS, youth are peculiarly vulnerable to being victims of crime such as homicide, robbery, assault and battery, and sexual offenses. Youth are generally smaller than adults, less likely to be in possession of a weapon, and less able to defend themselves; and

WHEREAS, youth are perceived to be easier targets by those persons inclined to commit violent crimes, a vulnerability is generally increased during late night hours because persons who are inclined to commit crimes of violence can do so with a lower risk of apprehension, because there is often little or no parental or adult supervision under such circumstances; and

WHEREAS, youth are also less likely to perceive the imminent risk of becoming the victim of a violent crime, and are under an additional threat of sex crimes because of perception that youth are less likely to be believed if they report having been the victim of a sex crime; and

WHEREAS, most parents make every reasonable effort to protect their children from the dangers of crime and make informed choices as to what to allow their children to do; and

WHEREAS, notwithstanding those efforts, parents cannot always maintain control of their children, and children at times fail to obey parentally-imposed curfews and can fail to be truthful to their parents about what they are doing during evening hours out of the home;

WHEREAS, parental oversight of youth can also be impaired by the fact that some single parents must work during evening or night hours, leaving their children in an unsupervised or under-supervised setting during these hours; and

WHEREAS, residents of the Town, including parents of minor children, as well as business owners and managers in the Town have asked the Town to develop a lawful balanced means of assisting them in both reducing the risks to children who are out and unsupervised during nighttime hours, and in reducing the negative effects of unsupervised children being out at night, including vandalism, theft, public urination, underaged consumption of alcohol or unlawful narcotics, and disturbance of the peace; and

WHEREAS, the Town of Redington Shores, being a beautiful beachfront community with properties offering short term rental opportunities, has for years seen increases in the number of non-resident youth in the Town during holidays, school/college/university breaks, and during vacation season, resulting in numerous unsupervised youth congregating on the Town's beach, sidewalks, and business locations open during evening hours, during which times vandalism, theft, public urination, underaged consumption of alcohol or unlawful narcotics, public intoxication, fighting, disturbance of sea turtle nesting areas, and general disturbances of the peace are too often occurring; and

WHEREAS, congregation of youth in front of or within businesses during evening hours impedes the ability to customers to freely access and patronize such businesses; and

WHEREAS, congregation of youth on sidewalks within the Town during evening hours impedes the free flow of persons using those sidewalks for their intended purpose; and

WHEREAS, the Town is situated within Pinellas County, the most densely populated county in Florida, and within easy driving distance for youth traveling from Pasco, Manatee and Hillsborough Counties; and

WHEREAS, these geographic regions include several major colleges and universities, as well as school districts with some of the highest levels of student populations, all of which release their students for extended seasonal breaks during the same weeks each year; and

WHEREAS, the Town's Chief of Police (the Chief) has reported that in prior years, his department has made many attempts to work with the short-term rental properties in the Town with the goal of having those property owners/managers play a more active role in overseeing the activities of minors staying at their properties; and

WHEREAS, the Chief has reported that in spite of such efforts, the owners/managers were unwilling to crack down on short-term renting to an apparent adult on line, only to have the rental occupied solely by minors, and were either unwilling or unable to exercise any meaningful control over the activities of unsupervised minors in businesses and on beaches and sidewalks; and

WHEREAS, the Chief reports that last year the Police Department responded to 34 calls for alcohol and drug overdoses; and

WHEREAS, the Chief has reported that given the historical consistency of such activities, and the growing prevalence of vacation rental properties in the Town, the foregoing activities is projected to occur again in 2023 and in subsequent years; and

WHEREAS, the Town of Redington Shores is a small municipality with limited resources available to combat the unruly behavior of unaccompanied juveniles which impairs the health, safety and welfare of the general public, including the minors involved; and

WHEREAS, Article VIII, § 2(b) of the State Constitution provides that municipalities shall have the governmental powers to enable them to conduct municipal government, perform municipal functions and render municipal services, and may exercise any power for municipal purposes, except when expressly prohibited by law; and

WHEREAS, Florida Statutes § 877.25 authorizes counties and municipalities to enact curfew ordinances regulating the presence of youths in public places and establishments which provide restrictions more stringent or less stringent than the curfew established by the Legislature in Florida Statutes § 877.22 (the model curfew statute); and

WHEREAS, in State v. J.P., 907 So.2d 1101, 1115-16 (Fla. 2004), the Florida Supreme Court (finding the juvenile curfew ordinances of the cities of Pinellas Park and Tampa were unconstitutional), ruled that strict scrutiny applies to such ordinances, that juveniles had fundamental rights to privacy and freedom of movement, and that the ordinances burdened those rights because the ordinances did not contain sufficient exceptions to ensure minors would be allowed to exercise their rights to engage in core First Amendment activities, to engage in interstate travel, and to go to and from valid places of employment; and

WHEREAS, it is the intent of the Town Commission to adopt this Ordinance for the protection of the general public, including minors, by establishing a limited curfew in the Town during certain hours of the day or night under certain circumstances, in a manner which will protect the fundamental constitutional rights of youth and parents by setting out a body of regulations and standards which are narrowly tailored so as to advance public interests deemed by the Town Commission as compelling, which shall conform with requirements set out by the Florida Supreme Court in State v. JP, and guidelines of other State and Federal Courts, as well as meeting all requirements of the Constitutions of the United States and the State of Florida; and

WHEREAS, the Town Commission has conducted a public hearing on this Ordinance at which it heard from the Police Department, property owners and residents, and all other interested parties whether those parties were in support of or opposed to the regulations set forth in the Ordinance; and

WHEREAS, the Town Commission finds that it is in the best interests of the Town, and the health, safety and welfare of its residents, visitors and businesses, to adopt this Ordinance.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED by the Board of Commissioners of the Town of Redington Shores, Florida, that:
