

TRAVERSE CITY CODE OF ORDINANCES

ORDINANCE AMENDMENT NO. 1107

Effective date: November 14, 2019

TITLE: Landscaping and Trees Amendment (Definitions)

THE CITY OF TRAVERSE CITY ORDAINS:

That the Definitions, Section 1320.07, be amended to read in its entirety as follows:

1320.07 - Definitions.

As used in this chapter:

Abutting means a lot or parcel which shares a common border with the subject lot or parcel.

Accessory building means a building or structure customarily incidental and subordinate to the principal building and located on the same lot as and spatially separated from the principal building.

Accessory dwelling unit means a smaller, secondary home on the same lot as a principal dwelling. Accessory dwelling units are independently habitable and provide the basic requirements of shelter, heating, cooking and sanitation. There are 2 types of accessory dwelling units:

- (1) Accessory dwelling in an accessory building (examples include converted garages or new construction).
- (2) Accessory dwelling that is attached or part of the principal dwelling (examples include converted living space, attached garages, basements or attics; additions; or a combination thereof).

Accessory use means a use customarily incidental and subordinate to the principal use of the land or building and located on the same lot as the principal use.

Adult foster care family home means a private residence with the approved capacity to receive not more than 6 adults who shall be provided foster care for 5 or more days a week and for 2 or more consecutive weeks. The adult foster care family home state licensee shall be a member of the household and an occupant of the residence.

Adult foster care small group home means a state licensed adult foster care facility with the approved capacity for not more than 12 adult residents to be provided foster care.

Affordable housing means housing units for eligible low-income households where the occupant is paying no more than 30 percent of gross income for housing costs.

Aggrieved person means a person who has suffered a substantial damage from a zoning decision not in common to other property owners similarly situated, and who has actively opposed the decision in question.

Airport terminal means the main passenger location of an airport and includes all office, hotel and retail uses commonly occurring at such locations.

Alley means a way which functions primarily as a service corridor and provides access to properties abutting thereon. "Alley" does not mean "street."

Alteration means any change, addition or modification in construction or type of occupancy; any change in the structural members of a building, such as walls or partitions, columns, beams or girders.

Basement means that portion of a building which is partly or wholly below finished grade, but so located that the vertical distance from the average grade to the floor is greater than the vertical distance from the average grade to the ceiling. A basement, as defined herein, shall not be counted as a story (see Figure 1-1). A cellar is a basement.

Berm means a constructed mound of earth rising to an elevation above the adjacent ground level of the site where located which contributes to the visual screening of the area behind the berm.

Block means a unit of land bounded by streets or by a combination of streets and public land, railroad rights-of-way, waterways or any other barrier to the continuity of development.

Block, face. "Face block" means that portion of a block or tract of land facing the same side of a single street and lying between the closest intersecting streets.

Boat house means an enclosed or partially enclosed structure designed for the use and storage of private watercraft and marine equipment.

Boat livery means any structure, site or tract of land utilized for the storage, servicing, docking or rental of watercraft for a fee.

Brew pub means a facility as defined such by the State of Michigan.

Building means any structure designed or built for the enclosure, shelter or protection of persons, animals, chattels or property of any kind.

Building, height of. See "height of building."

Building, principal. "Principal building" means a building within which is conducted the main or principal use of the lot upon which it is located. More than one principal building is allowed on a lot.

Cemetery means property, including crematories, mausoleums, and/or columbariums, used or intended to be used solely for the perpetual interment of deceased human beings or household pets.

Clinic means an establishment where human patients who are not lodged overnight are admitted for examination and treatment by a group of physicians or dentists or similar professions.

Club means an organization of persons for special purposes or for the promulgation of sports, arts, science, literature, politics, agriculture or similar activities, but not operated for profit and open only to members and not the public.

Cluster means a development design technique that concentrates building on a portion of the site to allow the remaining land to be used for recreation, common open space and preservation of environmentally sensitive features.

Communication antenna means a device, dish or array used to transmit or receive telecommunications signals mounted on a communication tower, building or structure that is greater than 1 square meter in a residential district or 2 square meters in a non-residential district. Antenna does not include federally-licensed amateur radio station, television or radio receive-only antennas or antennas used solely for personal use. Communication antennas are not "essential services," public utilities or private utilities.

Communication tower or tower means any structure that is primarily designed and constructed for the purpose of supporting 1 or more antennas for telecommunications, radio and similar communication purposes, including self-supporting lattice towers, guyed towers, or monopole towers. The term includes radio and television transmission towers, microwave towers, common-carrier towers, cellular telephone towers, alternative tower structures, and the like. Communication towers are not "essential services," public utilities or private utilities.

Community garden means a parcel gardened collectively by a group of people.

Convenience store means a retail establishment offering for sale prepackaged food products, household items and other goods commonly associated with the same and having a gross floor area of less than 5,000 square feet.

Country club. See "golf course."

Crematories means a building or structure, or room or space in a building or structure, for the cremation of deceased persons or deceased household pets.

Critical root zone means a circular area surrounding a tree, the radius of which is measured outward from the trunk of a tree 1 foot for each 1 inch of diameter at breast height. The critical root zone shall also extend to a depth of 4 feet below the natural surface ground level.

Cultural facilities means facilities for activities for the preservation and enhancement for the cultural well-being of the community.

Development means all structures and other modifications of the natural landscape above and below ground or water on a particular site.

Diameter at breast height means the diameter of a tree trunk in inches measured by diameter at 4.5 feet above the ground.

District means a section of the City for which the zoning regulations governing the use of buildings and premises, the height of buildings, setbacks and the intensity of use are uniform.

Drive-in means an establishment which by design, physical facilities, service, or by packaging procedures encourages or permits customers to receive services or obtain goods while remaining in their motor vehicles.

Drive-through means an establishment which by design, physical facilities, service, or by packaging procedures encourages or permits customers to receive service or obtain goods intended to be consumed off-premises.

Dripline means an imaginary vertical line extending downward from the outermost tips of the tree branches to the ground.

Driveway means a means of access for vehicles from a street, approved alley, across a lot or parcel to a parking or loading area, garage, dwelling or other structure or area on the same lot.

Driveway, service means a point of access solely for the use of vehicles designed to load and unload trash receptacles 3 cubic yards or more in size.

Dwelling means any building or portion thereof which is designed for or used exclusively for residential purposes and containing 1 or more dwelling units.

Dwelling, multiple family. "Multiple family dwelling" means a building or portion thereof containing 3 or more dwelling units and designed for or occupied as the home of 3 or more families living independently of each other.

Dwelling, single-family. "Single-family dwelling" means a detached building containing 1 dwelling unit and designed for or occupied by only 1 family.

Dwelling, two-family. "Two-family dwelling" means a building designed for or occupied exclusively by 2 families living independently of each other.

Dwelling unit means 1 or more rooms with bathroom and principal kitchen facilities designed as a self-contained unit for occupancy by 1 family for living, cooking and sleeping purposes. The existence of a food preparation area (such as a sink and appliances to heat and refrigerate food) within a room or rooms shall be evidence of the existence of a dwelling unit.

Eligible household means a household meeting the income criteria included in Chapter 1376, with income determined in a manner consistent with determinations of lower-income households and area median income under Section 8 of the U.S. Housing Act of 1937, as amended (Section 8 Housing Program).

Eligible housing nonprofit means a 501(c)3 nonprofit housing organization with the means and capacity to guarantee and enforce long-term affordability of affordable housing units meeting the requirements of Chapter 1376.

Emergency shelter means a facility operated by a governmental or nonprofit agency where supportive services and shelter are offered to homeless persons.

Erected means built, constructed, reconstructed, moved upon, or any physical operations on the premises required for the building. Excavations, fill, drainage and the like, shall be considered a part of erection when done in conjunction with a structure.

Essential services means the installation, construction, alteration or maintenance by public utilities or governmental agencies of underground, surface or overhead telephone, electrical, gas, steam, fuel, or water distribution systems, collections, supply or disposal systems, streets, alleys, sidewalks, or trails, including pavement, traffic control devices, signs, poles, wires, mains, drains, sewers, pipes, conduits, cables, padmount transformers, fire alarm and police call boxes, traffic signals, hydrants and similar accessories in connection therewith which are necessary for the furnishing of adequate service by such utilities or governmental agencies for the general public health, safety, convenience or welfare. "Essential services" do not include communication antennas and communication towers.

Essential service-structures. The erection, construction, alteration or maintenance by public utilities or governmental agencies of structures not in the right-of-way over 800 cubic feet in area including, but not limited to, towers, transmission and subtransmission facilities, or buildings related to essential services in all districts.

Facade means the exterior wall of a building exposed to public view.
