

GENERAL ORDINANCE NO. 25-20

AN ORDINANCE CREATING CHAPTER 50,
GREEN BAY MUNICIPAL CODE, RELATING TO EQUAL RIGHTS

THE COMMON COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF GREEN BAY DOES ORDAIN AS FOLLOWS:

SECTION 1. Chapter 50, Green Bay Municipal Code, is hereby created to read:

50.01 Findings; Declaration of Policy.

- (1) A vibrant, livable, successful, and productive city is made possible by the talents, contributions, and well-being of its diverse residents. It is the policy of the City that the equal rights of all those who live and work in the city are ensured, and that equal rights and equal opportunities within the context of the larger commercial and social fabric of the Green Bay community are promoted.
- (2) The practice of providing equal opportunities to persons without regard to actual or perceived sex, race, religion, creed, color, national origin, ancestry, age, disability, lawful source of income, marital status, familial status, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, gender non-conformity, transgender status, past or present military service, or status as a victim of domestic abuse, sexual assault, or stalking is a desirable goal of the city and a matter of legitimate concern to its government. Discrimination against any City resident endangers the rights and privileges of all residents. The denial of equal opportunity intensifies group conflict, undermines the foundations of democratic society, and adversely affects the general welfare of the community. Denial of equal opportunity in housing forces individuals and families who are discriminated against to live in housing that falls below reasonably acceptable standards. Denial of equal opportunity in employment deprives the community of the fullest productive capacity of those of its members so discriminated against and denies to them the sufficiency of earnings necessary for maintaining the standards of living consistent with their abilities and talents.
- (3) The provision of adequate safeguards against discrimination is a proper and necessary function of City government. To protect the health, safety, and general welfare of all inhabitants of and all persons employed within the city, it is declared to be the public policy of the City to foster, protect, and enforce the right to equal opportunity without regard to sex, race, religion, creed, color, national origin, ancestry, age, disability, lawful source of income, marital status, familial status, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, gender non-conformity, transgender status, past or present military service, status as a victim of domestic abuse, sexual assault, or stalking, or an individual's affiliation or perceived affiliation with any of these categories. To fully effectuate this policy of promoting nondiscrimination, the City shall endeavor to eliminate all discrimination that may occur in the city.

- (4) Where applicable, this chapter shall be interpreted and applied consistently with the provisions of Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended; Title VIII of the Civil Rights Act of 1968; 42 U.S.C. § 2000a, et seq.; 42 U.S.C. §§ 3601, et seq.; 24 C.F.R. §§ 100, et seq.; 29 C.F.R. 1600, et seq.; Wis. Stat. §§ 66.1011, 106.50, 106.52, and 111.31-111.395; and any successor provisions of state and federal law.

50.02 Purpose. Each sector of society engaged in the life of the city has a role in promoting equal rights, equity, and a social fabric free of discrimination. City government is uniquely positioned to assume a primary leadership role in these efforts. To achieve this leadership objective, each department, agency, and unit of City government shall be accountable for promoting social and economic equity for all residents of the city, and structuring its work so that the outcomes are directed toward social and economic equity for all residents.

50.04 Housing Discrimination Prohibited.

(1) In this section, prohibited discrimination includes discrimination because of the protected person status of the buyer, renter, or applicant, or any person residing in or intending to reside in a dwelling after it is sold, rented, or made available.

(2) It shall be an unfair discrimination practice and unlawful and hereby prohibited :

(a) For any owner to refuse to transfer, sell, or rent, or to refuse to negotiate for the sale, or rental of, or to otherwise make unavailable, deny, or withhold from any person such housing because of the person's status as a protected person.

- (b) For any owner to discriminate against any person in the terms, conditions, or privileges of the transfer, sale, or rental of any housing, or in the provision of services or facilities in connection therewith, because of the person's status as a protected person. Nothing in this section shall be deemed to prohibit a housing provider from considering a history of disruptive, abusive, or dangerous behavior.
- (c) For any person to make, print, publish, post, or broadcast, or cause to be made, printed, published, posted, or broadcast any notice, statement, or advertisement with respect to the sale, rental, or financing of a dwelling that expresses any preference, limitation, specifications, or discrimination, or an intention to make such preference, limitation, specification, or discrimination, as to any protected persons.
- (d) For any owner to falsely represent to any person that any dwelling is not available for inspection, sale, or rental on the basis of a prospective occupant's or tenant's status as a protected person. A person who has received written notice from the Green Bay Police Department that a drug nuisance under Wis. Stat. § 823.113 exists on property for which the person is responsible as owner may take action to eliminate the nuisance, including but not limited to eviction of residents, provided such action is not a subterfuge to evade the provisions of this chapter.
- (e) For any person to induce or attempt to induce any person to sell or rent a dwelling by representations regarding the entry or prospective entry into the neighborhood of protected persons or persons of a particular economic status or by representations to the effect that such present or prospective entry will or may result in any of the following:
 - 1. The lowering of real estate values in the area.
 - 2. A deterioration in the character of the area.
 - 3. An increase in criminal or antisocial behavior in the area.
 - 4. A decline in the quality of the schools or other public service facilities in the area.
- (f) For any person or other entity whose business includes engaging in residential real estate-related transactions to discriminate against any person in making available such a transaction, or in the terms or conditions of such a transaction, because of a person's status as a protected person. As used in this section, the term "residential real estate-related transaction" means any of the following:

1. The lending of money or security, guaranteeing any loan, accepting any mortgage, or in any other manner making available any other funds or resources for the construction, acquisition, purchase, rehabilitation, repair, improvement, or maintenance of any housing or housing accommodation.
 2. The selling, brokering, or appraising of residential real property. Nothing in this section prohibits a person engaged in the business of making or furnishing appraisals of residential real property from taking into consideration factors other than a person's status as a protected person.
- (g) For any owner to make or cause to be made any written or oral inquiry or record concerning the nature of any disability of prospective occupants or tenants of such housing, or persons associated with them, unless such inquiry or record is necessary for compliance with applicable local, state, or federal law.
- (h) For any person to refuse to permit, at the expense of the person with a disability, reasonable modifications of existing premises occupied or to be occupied by such person if such modifications may be necessary to afford such person full enjoyment of the premises, except that, in the case of a rental, an owner may condition permission for such a modification on the renter agreeing to restore the interior of the premises to the condition that existed before the modification, reasonable wear and tear excepted.
- (i) For any person to refuse to make reasonable accommodations in rules, policies, practices, or services, when such accommodations may be necessary to afford persons with a disability equal opportunity to use and enjoy a dwelling.
- (j) Animals assisting persons with disabilities.
1. If a protected person with a disability keeps an animal that is specially trained to assist the disabled person, it is discrimination for any person to refuse to sell or rent housing to the protected person, cause the eviction of the person from the housing, require extra compensation from the person as a condition of continued residence in the housing, or engage in the harassment of the person because they keep such an animal.
 - i. An owner may ask for documentation of the individual's disability and the need for the animal, unless the disability is readily apparent or known. The owner must keep all documentation confidential.
 - ii. An owner may require the protected person to accept liability for sanitation with respect to, and damage to the premises caused by, the animal.

2. This subsection does not apply in the case of the rental of owner-occupied housing if the owner or a member of the owner's immediate family occupying the housing possesses and, upon request, presents to the person a certificate signed by a physician which states that the owner or family member is allergic to the type of animal the protected person possesses.
- (3) Nothing in this section shall affect any person's decision to share occupancy of a lodging room, apartment, or dwelling unit with another person or persons.
- (4) Information Allowed.
 - (a) Nothing in this section shall be deemed to prohibit an owner from requiring that any person who seeks to buy, rent, or lease any housing supply information concerning the person's prior residence, or familial, marital, financial, and business status.
 - (b) Nothing in this section shall be deemed to prohibit an owner from refusing to sell, rent, or lease any housing to any person on the basis of such person's treatment of any property formerly occupied by such person or on the basis of such person's record in paying rent or other obligations when due, or such person's ability to pay.
- (5) The prohibition in this section against discrimination against a person with protected person status because of the person's age or familial status does not apply to housing for older persons, as defined in Wis. Stat. § 106.50(1m)(m), as amended from time to time.
- (6) It is not a violation of this ordinance to restrict occupancy in a dwelling to persons with disabilities or to provide housing for older persons as defined in Wis. Stat. § 106.50(1m)(m), as amended from time to time.
- (7) It is not a violation of this ordinance to restrict occupancy in a dwelling to protected persons or to provide housing for protected persons as provided under any state or federal program that is specifically designed and operated to assist persons in a protected class, as defined in the state or federal program. For example, it is not a violation of this ordinance to restrict occupancy in a dwelling to veterans, homeless individuals, or survivors of domestic violence.
- (8) It is not a violation of this ordinance for a religious organization, association, or society, or any nonprofit institution or organization operated, supervised, or controlled by or in conjunction with a religious organization, association, or society, from limiting the sale, rental, or occupancy of dwellings which it owns or operates for other than a commercial purpose to persons of the same religion, or from giving preference to such persons.

 - (a) For any person to deny to another, or to charge another a price different from the regular rate charged to others for the full and equal enjoyment of any public place of accommodation or amusement because of the person's status as a protected person.
 - (b) For any person to directly or indirectly publish, circulate, display, mail, or otherwise disseminate any written communication which the communicator knows is to the effect that any of the facilities of any public place of accommodation or amusement will be denied to any person by reason of status as a protected person, or that the patronage of a protected person is unwelcome, objectionable, or unacceptable for any reason.
 - (c) For any person to subject a person, directly or through contractual, licensing, or other arrangements, to a denial of the opportunity to participate in or benefit from the goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages, or accommodations of an entity on the basis of the individual's status as a protected person.

- (3) This section does not prohibit special services, rates, or benefits provided to veterans or to any protected person fifty (50) years of age or older.
- (4) Any exemption or affirmative defense available under Wis. Stat. §106.52(3) shall apply to this section.

- (1) No individual shall be discriminated against on the basis of disability, or because of the known disability of an individual with whom the individual or entity is known to have a relationship or association, in the full and equal enjoyment of the goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages, or accommodations of any public place of accommodation or amusement by any person who owns, leases (or leases to another), or operates a public place of accommodation or amusement.
 - (a) Denial of Participation. It shall be prohibited discrimination to subject an individual, on the basis of a disability, directly or through contractual, licensing, or other arrangements, to a denial of the opportunity to participate in or benefit from the goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages, or accommodations of an entity.

- (2) A public place of accommodation or amusement shall make reasonable modifications in policies, practices, and procedures to permit the full and equal enjoyment of the public place of accommodation or amusement by a person with a disability. Those policies, practices, and procedures shall ensure that a person with a disability is not segregated from other patrons of the public place of accommodation or amusement.
- (3) This section is not intended to impose a greater duty than the reasonable accommodation requirements of the Americans with Disabilities Act Amendments Act of 2008.

50.07 City Facilities. It shall be an unfair discrimination practice and unlawful and hereby prohibited for any person, public official, employee, agent, agency, authority, board, commission, or committee of the City of Green Bay to deny any person the use of City facilities or otherwise discriminate against any person in the use of City facilities because of such person's status as a protected person.

- (1) This section is not intended to impose a greater duty than the reasonable accommodation requirements of the Americans with Disabilities Act Amendments Act of 2008.

50.08 Employment Discrimination Prohibited.

- (1) It shall be an unfair discrimination practice and unlawful and hereby prohibited:
 - (a) For any person or employer to discriminate against any person with respect to the failure or refusal to hire, or with respect to the discharge, compensation, terms, conditions, or privileges of employment, including promotion, on the basis of the person's status as a protected person.
 - (b) For any person or employer, individually or in concert with others, to limit, segregate, or classify employees or applicants for employment in any way which would deprive or tend to deprive any person of employment opportunities or which would otherwise adversely affect their status as an employee because of such person's status as a protected person.
 - (c) For any person or employer to fail or refuse to refer for employment, or otherwise to discriminate against any person in a manner that would deprive or limit the person's employment opportunities or otherwise adversely affect their status as an applicant or prospective employee, on the basis of the person's status as a protected person.

- (d) For any employer, labor organization, or employment agency to fail or refuse to hire a person with a disability if the employer, labor organization, or employment agency can show that the person's disability is reasonably related to their ability to adequately undertake the job-related responsibilities of the employment.
- (e) For an employer to apply different standards of compensation, or different terms, conditions, or privileges of employment, pursuant to a bona fide seniority or merit system, or a system which measures earnings by quantity or quality of production, or to employees who work in different locations, provided that such differences are not the result of an intention to discriminate because of status as protected persons.
