Explanation

BACKGROUND: In October 2010 Columbus City Council adopted the Greater Hilltop Plan Amendment, which addresses streetscape improvements, walkability, and revitalization for the Sullivant Avenue Corridor. Commercial overlays are recommended as a tool for achieving these objectives. While varying in detail, the Urban Commercial Overlay (UCO) and Community Commercial Overlay (CCO) both work in conjunction with existing zoning to improve the character of commercial corridors, facilitate streetscape continuity, and encourage pedestrian-friendly development.

Planning staff worked with community leaders and stakeholders to develop the overlay designations. Impacted property owners were notified of the proposal by mail and invited to public meetings. A public open house was held on September 25, 2012. Information was also made available on the City's website. The Greater Hilltop Area Commission voted to endorse the overlays at their December 4, 2012 meeting. The Columbus Development Commission endorsed the proposal at their ~~January 10, 2012~~ January 10, 2013 meeting, of which property owners were also notified.

DEVELOPMENT COMMISSION RECOMMENDATION: Approval

CITY DEPARTMENTS RECOMMENDATION: Approval.

FISCAL IMPACT: No funding is required for this legislation.
