WHEREAS, the City has adopted an Ordinance entitled the City of Alameda Rent Control, Limitations on Evictions, and Relocation Payments to Certain Displaced Tenants Ordinance ("the Rent Control Ordinance"); and

WHEREAS, the Rent Control Ordinance has just cause provisions limiting the grounds on which a tenancy may be terminated; and

WHEREAS, recent amendments to State law (SB 567, amending Civil Code, sections 1946.2) provides that the provisions of CC 1946.2 (the just cause provisions) do not apply to residential real property subject to a local ordinance requiring just cause for eviction if the local ordinance was adopted or amended after September 1, 2019 and is more protective than CC 1946.2 in which case the local ordinance shall apply; and

WHEREAS, the local ordinance is more protective if (1) the just cause provisions are consistent with CC 1946.2; (2) the local ordinance further limits the reasons for termination of a tenancy, provides for higher relocation assistance or provides additional tenant protections that are not otherwise prohibited by any other provision of law; and (3) the local government has made a binding written finding within the local ordinance that the ordinance is more protective than CC 1946.2; and

WHEREAS, the City Council finds and determines (1) the just cause provisions of the Rent Control Ordinance are consistent with the just cause provisions of Civil Code, Section 1946.2, (2) the Rent Control Ordinance sets forth additional limitations on the reasons for terminating tenancy, provides for higher relocation assistance than does Civil Code section 1946.2, and provides additional tenant protections that are not otherwise prohibited by any other provision of law; and (3) the Rent Control Ordinance is more protective of tenant's rights than Civil Code, Section 1946.2; and

WHEREAS, the wording of the definition of "Rental Unit" should be revised to make it clear that the phrase "other than the exemptions set forth in Section 6-58.20" applies to "Dwelling Units" as used in that Section; and

WHEREAS, a new State law (SB 567) provides that the City Attorney may enforce applicable State rent control laws within incorporated cities; and

WHEREAS, this Ordinance is exempt from review under the California Environmental Quality Act ("CEQA") under CEQA Guidelines Sections 15378 (not a project).
